Ryan Athletic Center & D.J. Sokol Arena

On Oct. 16, 2007, an important milestone was reached when Creighton broke ground for a new on-campus facility at the northeast corner of 19th and Webster – just north of Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium – thanks to the generous donations of Wayne and Eileen Ryan and family and Dave and Peggy Sokol. The facility was fully-funded by private monies and was dedicated on Aug. 28, 2009. The facility is home to Bluejay volleyball and women's basketball, hosting its first regular-season basketball game on Nov. 13, 2009, a Bluejay win over Arkansas State.

The Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena, a 75,000 square-foot facility, houses a gymnasium seating 2,500 fans for sporting events, as well as coaches' offices and locker rooms for women's basketball, volleyball, men's soccer, women's soccer, baseball and softball. It also houses areas for ticketing, athletic training, meeting rooms, media workrooms, hospitality functions and additional academic space. The arena is also being used for other campus and community events, including assemblies, coaching camps and clinics, concerts, speakers and graduations.

Wayne and Eileen Ryan and their family have been long-time supporters of Creighton University. Wayne Ryan, BS'49, MS'51, chairman and CEO of Streck Laboratories, Inc., began his career teaching at Creighton before pursuing his passion for research that led to the founding of his company. The Ryans are also Jaybackers and their daughter, Connie, serves on Creighton's Board of Directors.

David and Peggy Sokol are honoring their son, David L. Sokol, Jr. "D.J.", who died in 1999 following a battle with Hodgkin's disease, by naming the gymnasium the D.J. Sokol Arena. Sokol served as chairman and CEO of MidAmerican Energy Holdings Company and recently served on Creighton University's Board of Directors.

"We have been searching to find a more suitable venue for women's basketball and volleyball competitions for some time," said Creighton Athletics Director Bruce Rasmussen. "Visionary donors like the Ryans and Sokols make our dreams of an even stronger athletics program, championed by intensely loyal fans, more of a reality. This Bluejay spirit is a unifying characteristic that enhances the institution's visibility and reputation."

Ryan Athletic Center & D.J. Sokol Arena

With the opening of the Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena in 2009, the Creighton women's basketball team played a regular-season game on campus for the first time since the 1991-92 season. Located on the east side of Creighton's campus on Florence Boulevard (19th Street), the arena is situated just one block north of the nationally-recognized Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium where the Bluejay soccer teams play.

Creighton opened the facility with a 77-54 win over Arkansas State on Nov. 13, 2009. The Bluejays have posted a 24-5 record in the first two seasons inside their new home (D.J. Sokol Arena firsts and records on pages 79-81).

More than 182,000 bricks, 654 tons of steel and 30 miles of electrical wire were used during construction, which employed up to 115 workers at one time. The height of the roof ridge is 78'-10" above the arena floor, with a unique ceiling fan measuring 20 feet in diameter spinning high above the playing surface.

Located in the adjoining Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center are locker rooms and a team lounge for the Bluejays. In addition to the locker room and lounge, the Ryan Athletic Center includes a weight room and athletic training room for the student-athletes. Coaches offices are also located in the new facility, along with offices for much of Creighton's support staff, including facilities, ticketing, marketing and sports information.

Creighton owns a 24-5 record in two seasons at D.J. Sokol Arena.

The Bluejays can relax or study in the team lounge area connected to their locker room.

A weight room inside of the Ryan Athletic Center gives all Creighton student-athletes access to two weight rooms in the athletic department.

Interviews

During the week, all player interviews must be coordinated through Rob Simms of the sports information office at (402) 280-2433. Interviews with head coach Jim Flanery may be arranged by calling the basketball office at (402) 280-2720. The best time to reach Flanery is weekday mornings.

Game-day player interviews prior to a game are not permitted. Coaches will be available for interviews upon request on a first-come, first-served basis.

Following games, the Creighton locker room is closed. At home, Flanery and requested players will be available on the court or outside Creighton's locker room depending on media needs. On the road, Flanery and requested players will be made available upon request.

Visiting Radio

Visiting stations interested in using existing phone lines should contact Rob Simms via e-mail. A total of four radio phone lines (two for Creighton and two for the opponent) will be available for each game. Missouri Valley Conference rules require two courtesy phone lines for the official radio station of member schools. There are no ISDN lines available at D.J. Sokol Arena.

Photographers

Only those accredited photographers on assignment will be issued credentials. Photographers may pick up copies of the game rosters in the media room prior to the game. No flashes or strobes are permitted. Sidelines are to be kept clear. In accordance with NCAA rules, anyone shooting the game must also stay clear of the marked area six feet behind each baseline.

Internet

D.J. Sokol Arena is equipped with a wireless internet system for visitors. Visiting media can log on to the 'CUWiFi' wireless network. The media room located just off the east concourse is hardwired for guests.

The Creighton women's basketball team will play its 20th season as a member of the Missouri Valley Conference and its 10th season under head coach Jim Flanery in 2011-12. The past two decades have seen the Bluejays establish themselves as a perennial power in the conference, while the last decade has witnessed the Bluejays win more Valley games than any other league school. Bluejay fans can expect more success this season, as this squad predominantly made up of freshmen and sophomores looks to have enough talent to overcome its youth.

Flanery, one of only seven head coaches in league history with 100 conference wins, annually has his teams competing for conference supremacy. In his first nine years, the Bluejays have finished second or higher in the MVC standings six times.

Nine of 12 Bluejays on the 2011-12 roster are underclassmen, as the Jays list only three juniors and seniors on the roster this year. Combine that youth and the fact that only one Bluejay is listed above 6-feet-tall, Flanery will look for his team to press more and create more offense through its defense.

Creighton has lost two of the top-three rebounders in school history over the past two seasons, and finding someone to replace that productivity on the glass will be a key to look for throughout the 2011-12 campaign. Flanery's teams have made at least 200 three-pointers in six of the past nine seasons, but look for this year's team to be a little less dependent on the outside shot. Flanery hopes to spread minutes among his 12 players while committing to a deeper rotation off the bench. He expects this team's effort, versatility and depth to help overcome some of the growing pains that may be expected from such an inexperienced club.

The lone senior on this year's team is DaNae Moore. The Apple Valley, Minn., native has started 34 games during her career, including 15 starts as a junior. Known for her defensive abilities, Moore will be turned to for more minutes as a wing player and a greater leadership role in her final season with the Jays.

Juniors Jasmin Corbin and Ally Jensen round out the three-member group of upperclassmen. The 5-foot-6 guards are known for their three-point shooting ability as they have combined to make 103 three-pointers of their 133 career field goals. Corbin has come off the bench in each of her 59 career appearances. She'll again look to be a steady presence off the bench for the Bluejays this season.

Jensen started 19 of her 31 appearances last year, but saw her three-point percentages dip after ranking among MVC leaders from long range as a freshman. Entering the season with 79 career three-pointers, the sharpshooter is in line to become just the 16th player in school history to surpass 100 career threes.

The sophomore class is led by the 2011 MVC Freshman of the Year, Carli Tritz. The Sioux City, Iowa, native emerged as one of the best players in the league last year, finishing among the top-10 in The Valley in multiple statistical categories. Tritz led the Bluejays in steals and assists, while she finished second on the team with 11.4 points per game. The combo guard is creative off the dribble and one of the best athletes to ever put on the Bluejay uniform. The all-conference guard carried a heavy load for the Jays as a rookie and she'll again be looked upon to set the tone her teammates this year.

Sophomore forward Sarah Nelson joined Tritz on the MVC All-Freshman team last year, as she led the squad in blocked shots. Nelson finished second on the team with 4.4 rebounds per game and added 7.2 points per game during her debut season. Nelson can create match-up problems with her ability to play in the paint and extend the defense with a good outside shot.

McKenzie Fujan and Alyssa Kamphaus each saw important minutes for the Bluejays as freshmen last year. Fujan, a slashing guard, could make the biggest jump from year-one to year-two for the Bluejays. The sophomore showed great athleticism as a rookie and the Jays will turn to Fujan to play a much bigger role on the floor this season – whether it be running the point or establishing herself within the Bluejay press on defense.

At 6-foot-3, Kamphaus is the only true post player on the Bluejay roster. The center gave glimpses of greatness during her freshman season, when her points and rebounds per 40 minutes of play led the team. With more time on the floor this season, look for Kamphaus to establish herself in the low block and improve upon her rookie numbers.

Jordan Garrison and Riley Norman were slowed by injuries in their first season on campus last year. Garrison did not make her season debut until the Jays' 13th game of the year after being held out by a stress fracture in her left leg. Fans will be excited to see what this long-range threat can add to the Bluejay rotation when healthy for a full season. Norman suffered a torn ACL in preseason workouts and redshirted her first season last year. Norman's length will frustrate opponents and give the Bluejays versatility on both ends of the floor.

A trio of newcomers will look to establish themselves this season. Alexis Akin-Otiko is a proven winner, leading her Bellevue West teams to three straight Nebraska state title games. The forward brings great balance and strength to the Bluejay frontcourt and an ability to play inside and outside.

Taylor Johnson of Platte City, Mo., is a good shooter with good size for a perimeter player. At 5-foot-11, she owns the Platte County High School record for three-pointers made in a season and a career.

Sammy Jensen brings a similar makeup to the team as her older sister, junior Ally Jensen. A solid outside shooter, she's known for intelligent play and an ability to make those around her better.

A tradition now in its 10th season is Flanery's ability to schedule the most difficult slate in the MVC. The Bluejays will host an ACC school for the first time in program history when North Carolina State plays at D.J. Sokol Arena on Nov. 27. Creighton's following home game is against 2011 NCAA runner-up Notre Dame (Dec. 4) and its final non-conference home game is against seven-time reigning MAC champion Bowling Green (Dec. 18). The Bluejays also play at Nebraska (Dec. 8) and conclude non-conference play with a tournament in San Antonio, Texas.

Creighton has finished second in the MVC standings for three straight seasons and will turn to a young team to try to improve upon that finish. On the 10th anniversary of Creighton's last NCAA appearance, the Bluejays will hope to make a return trip to the "Big Dance" by capturing the MVC Tournament title when the event is held in St. Charles, Mo., for the fifth straight season, March 8-11.

Location

Creighton is located in Omaha, Neb., which has a metropolitan area population of more than 800,000.

Creighton History

Founded in 1878, Creighton University is a private co-educational university and is one of 28 Jesuit, Catholic colleges and universities in the United States.

Creighton Today

The Creighton of today is nationally recognized as a leading university in the Midwest. Creighton is known for student-centered education and significant undergraduate student research. As one of 28 universities in America designed in the Jesuit tradition of academic excellence and service to others, Creighton seeks to create an inclusive, diverse community. The Creighton Campus

Creighton is committed to being a model living-learning campus environment. The 130-acre campus is located within walking distance of downtown Omaha and many recreational, cultural and entertainment opportunities.

Creighton has invested more than $250 million in on-campus improvements since 2000 and constructed several new buildings, including the Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium, which distinguishes Omaha as the exclusive host of the region's only athletic facility designed exclusively for soccer. The stadium hosts high school, club and international soccer events and a variety of Omaha community events. The Hixson-Lied Science Building and the renovated Rigge Science Building and Criss Health Sciences Building are the centerpiece of Creighton's undergraduate and health professions leading approach to teaching and research. Davis Square and Opus Hall are new upperclassman town homes located on the east side of campus. The Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena serves as an on-campus home to Bluejay women's basketball and volleyball.

The Mike and Josie Harper Center for Student Life and Learning, a 245,000-square-foot facility, provides essential, centrally located services for students. It also serves as Creighton's front door – warmly welcoming prospective students, parents, members of the community and all other visitors.

At the center of the campus is the historic and recently restored St. John's Church, the California Street Mall, the Lied Education Center for the Arts, the V.J. and Angela Skutt Student Center and the Kiewit Fitness Center.

Creighton University was named to the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll in 2008 and 2009. In a top 25 ranking, Creighton was the only university in Nebraska and surrounding states identified as an academic institution making a positive contribution to the local city by dramatically strengthening the quality of life and economy, as well as renewing and revitalizing its surrounding community.

Service and Outreach

Creighton seeks to educate women and men who are not only proficient in their professions, but who are enlivened with a spirit of service and emboldened to create a more just world. Last year, Creighton students performed more than 275,000 hours of community service.

History of Billy Bluejay

"Billy Bluejay" is the official mascot of the Creighton University athletics department. The Bluejays were originally depicted by a "birdwatcher's bluejay," but that was changed in 1941 when Joseph P. Murphy, a Creighton alumnus, designed the current version of Billy, one with a more human stance and expression.

Prior to 1924, Creighton teams were referred to as the "Hilltoppers," but that name lost favor because at least six other teams in the country also used the same nickname. The Omaha Bee assisted the University's Athletic Board and Alumni Association in finding a new nickname by asking readers to submit possibilities. After reviewing 200 entries, the Athletic Board decided upon "Bluejays" because of the school's colors, blue and white.

Today, Creighton remains the only NCAA Division I athletics program known officially as the Bluejays.

Director of Athletics Bruce Rasmussen

The dean of MVC Athletic Directors and a 2008 inductee into the Omaha Sports Hall of Fame, Bruce Rasmussen enters his 18th year as director of athletics, and 32nd overall at Creighton University.

During his tenure, Creighton has risen to prominence with its success on-and-off the field, impressive facilities and record-breaking fundraising efforts.

For evidence, look no further than three recent projects that will continue to change the area athletics scene for years to come. The Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena opened in 2009 and immediately gave Creighton's women's basketball and volleyball teams a top-notch facility to call home. East of the Ryan Athletic Center will be Creighton's new student recreation center that was named the Rasmussen Center in his honor and will stand as one of the centerpieces on the Creighton campus. Last but not least is the completion of TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, home to Bluejay baseball and the College World Series, which opened in 2011 to rave reviews.

Those projects add to an overhaul in the school's athletic facilities over the past decade, which has also seen Creighton begin play at two of the finest facilities nationwide -- Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium (soccer) and CenturyLink Center Omaha (men's basketball).

Since Rasmussen assumed the role of athletics director, Creighton has won 22 regular-season and 29 conference tournament titles, which have helped lead to 56 postseason appearances. The Bluejays are the only school in the 105-year history of the Missouri Valley Conference to make 14 straight men's basketball postseasons, and have made the NCAA Tourney in men's soccer in 18 of the past 19 years.

Creighton has also been recognized with the MVC All-Academic Award in six of the last seven seasons, including a record 3.35 GPA last spring by student-athletes.

The Creighton softball team has made six NCAA Tournament appearances in the last nine years, while the men's soccer squad has reached 18 of the past 19 NCAA Tournaments.

A member of the College World Series of Omaha, Inc., Executive Committee, Rasmussen continues to play a vital role in Creighton and the city of Omaha remaining as host of the College World Series. He was one of six individuals on the CWS Oversight Committee that helped decide the location for the new downtown TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, which will help keep the CWS in town for another 25 years. With Creighton serving as host, the CWS has established new attendance records in six of the past nine years.

Rasmussen was one of four regional winners from the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) to take home a 2004 GeneralSports TURF Systems AD of the Year Award, and in 2010 was again honored with an Under Armour AD of the Year award by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics.

In terms of academics, Creighton's reputation as one of the nation's top academic institutions is reflected in the success the Bluejay student-athletes have had in the classroom during Rasmussen's service as athletics director. Creighton's baseball, men's basketball, women's basketball, volleyball, men's and women's cross country, women's soccer and men's and women's tennis teams all have received national awards for their academic success. Bluejay student-athletes consistently own GPAs of 3.25 or above.

Creighton's primary annual athletics fundraising events are the Bluejay Bash and the Bluejay Jamboree. Under Rasmussen's leadership, each of these events continues to raise record-breaking funds for Creighton athletics. Most notably, the 2010 Jamboree generated more than $398,000 through its gourmet dinner, raffle and auction.

Rasmussen accepted the associate athletics director position in 1992 after a 12-year run as the winningest coach in Creighton women's basketball history (196-147), culminating in the program's historic 1991-92 season.

The 1992 Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year, Rasmussen led the 1991-92 Bluejay women to a program-record 28 wins (28-4), the WAC regular-season and tournament championships and a first-round NCAA Tournament victory in the program's first-ever trip to the "Big Dance." With that 28-4 record in 1991-92, Rasmussen completed his college coaching career with a 196-147 record, good for a .571 winning percentage.

After serving as associate athletics director for two years, 1992-94, Rasmussen was named athletics director on Aug. 1, 1994.

A native of Webster City, Iowa, Rasmussen and his wife, Jill, have five children: Megan (26), David (24), John (20), Katy (16) and Grace (13).

President Timothy R. Lannon, S.J.

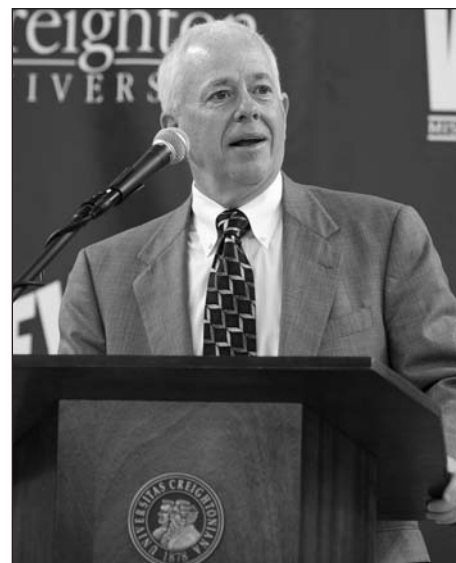

Timothy R. Lannon, S.J., is Creighton University's 24th president. He is the first Creighton University alumnus to head the University.

Fr. Lannon became president on July 1, 2011, after having served eight years as the 26th president of Saint Joseph's University in Philadelphia, where he raised Saint Joseph's academic and national profile. Previously, he served as associate executive vice president and vice president for University Advancement at Marquette University.

Fr. Lannon serves on the boards of Marquette University, Santa Clara University, Boston College, and the Association of Jesuit Colleges and Universities (AJCU). He has studied, written and presented extensively on the topic of Catholic identity at American universities.

Fr. Lannon graduated from Creighton in 1973 with a bachelor's degree in mathematics, and was president of the Student Board of Governors. In addition to his undergraduate degree from Creighton, he holds two master's degrees from Weston Jesuit School of Theology (now Boston College School of Theology and Ministry) and a doctorate in administration, planning and social policy from the Graduate School of Education at Harvard University.

A native of Mason City, Iowa, Fr. Lannon entered the Society of Jesus in 1977 and was ordained a priest in 1986. During his early years, he honed his educational and administrative skills as an assistant principal and instructor at several Jesuit institutions, as well as an admissions counselor at Creighton. Later, he was president of Creighton Preparatory School, from 1988 to 1995. Fr. Lannon received Creighton University's College of Arts and Sciences Alumni Merit Award in 1993 and has been inducted into Creighton Prep's Hall of Fame. As an undergraduate, he received Creighton's highest student honor, the Spirit of Creighton Award, in 1973.

Think of Omaha as center court: a dynamic and unique destination in the center of the country, full of action. Omaha has this special spirit that fills the city like an arena full of fans whose team just won with a buzzer beater. Excitement abounds for what it has built, what it has accomplished and what's still ahead.

It's a spirit born on the banks of the Missouri River, a city founded in 1854 by land speculators convinced they were at the heart of something new. Soon after, the transcontinental railroad was built and Omaha emerged as a hotbed of activity and new technologies.

There is a great story about Omaha's growth in the early days that really speaks to the pioneering spirit of the city. As Omaha prepared to lay underground cables for telephones, workers were trying to figure out the easiest way to string the lines. Being an inventive bunch, Omahans solved the problem by getting ferrets to help carry the lines through the tunnels. Sounds extraordinary, but it worked. Today, Omaha is at the center of the telecommunications industry. Call for a hotel reservation from anywhere in the U.S. and you are probably calling Omaha. The city is home to the Hyatt, Marriott, Radisson, and Omni reservation centers. That infrastructure is also key to the nation's defense. Offutt Air Force Base, home to STRATCOM, is based here. STRATCOM is the nation's eyes, ears and muscle when it comes to protecting the country.

That spirit is also seen in Omaha's modern day pioneers. Warren Buffett, one of the wealthiest men in the world, is a plain-spoken Omaha-born and bred financial pioneer. When Warren speaks, people listen, learn and make money. In fact, as you look at the five Fortune 500 companies that call Omaha home, they are all innovators: Berkshire Hathaway, Union Pacific, ConAgra Foods, Mutual of Omaha and Peter Kiewit Sons'.

It's not just the business community that embodies that spirit; you can also listen to it, touch it, taste it and feel it when you visit Omaha.

Home to the world's largest indoor rainforest, next to the world's largest indoor desert under the world's largest geodesic dome, Omaha's Henry Doorly Zoo is a can't miss when you're in town. Experience what it's like to go underground and see rare creatures that only come out at night, or surround yourself with sharks as you walk through an 850,000-gallon underwater tunnel. Talk about innovative: The zoo just spent $6 million on a research facility allowing it to respond to national and international conservation needs.

Omaha's three Smithsonian-affiliated museums offer a diverse cross section of art. Gaze at a 15,000-pound glass sculpture suspended in the air at the Joslyn Art Museum, hop on board Harry S. Truman's press train at the Durham Heritage Museum, or "pilot" a fighter jet at the Strategic Air and Space Museum, home to some of the most prized and rarely displayed military aircraft. Discover how nature can seem brand new as you walk through over 100 acres of lush and rare flora at Lauritzen Gardens, Omaha's Botanical Center.

Omaha is a mecca to music pioneers, as the city is known by many as the nation's premier hot spot for the indie rock scene. It's home to famed Saddle Creek Records and nationally renowned bands such as Bright Eyes, The Faint and Cursive.

Omaha is a city that never forgets its past. The Old Market is the true merging of old and new. The historic warehouse district was preserved and transformed into the city's art, shopping and dining district. Unique shops and restaurants lining cobblestone streets, it's a place to remember where you've been and where you're going.

The Bob Kerrey Pedestrian Bridge S-curves its way across the Missouri River. This one-of-a-kind structure is the longest pedestrian bridge to link two states.

It's just one more example of how Omaha stays fresh and innovative, all thanks to that indelible pioneering spirit.

Omaha and Creighton hosted the College World Series for the 62nd consecutive year in 2011, moving into the brand new TD Ameritrade Park Omaha.

Bluejay Women's Basketball

A Tradition Of Academic Excellence

- The Creighton women's basketball program is traditionally recognized by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association as one of the top Division I academic teams in the nation. Creighton's cumulative GPA of 3.527 ranked fourth in the NCAA as recognized by the WBCA last year. The honor marked the fourth time in nine years under head coach Jim Flanery that the team was ranked in the top-25 and the fifth time overall they have ranked in the top-six of the WBCA Academic Top 25 Honor Roll, following a sixth-place ranking in the 2009-10 rankings.
- Creighton's cumulative team grade-point average following the 2010-11 season was 3.53. Eight of Creighton's nine returning players this season carry at least a 3.0 cumulative grade-point average.
- Eleven of 12 Creighton women's basketball players had at least a 3.0 grade-point average in the spring 2011 semester.
- Kellie Nelson, Sam Schuett and Kelsey Woodard were all honored on the CoSIDA Academic All-District VII Teams, MVC Scholar-Athlete Teams and National Jesuit All-Academic Teams in 2010-11.
- The Creighton women's basketball program has produced two Academic All-Americans. Becky Flynn earned second-team honors in 1995 and Carrie Welle was named second-team Academic All-America in 1998.
- Laura Spanheimer (2004-05) and Dayna Finch (2003-04) were named the Prairie Farms Missouri Valley Conference Scholar-Athletes of the Year.

Academic and Athletic Success

- Creighton's student-athletes combined for a 3.35 GPA last spring. The student-athletes also own a 3.33 cumulative GPA, which equals the school's best mark ever.
- Creighton has won the MVC All-Academic Award in six of the past seven seasons.
- The NCAA recently introduced a new tool for the evaluation of the academic quality of participating programs. The Academic Progress Report is intended to gauge the progress student-athletes are making to degree completion and graduation. In the spring of 2011, Creighton had four teams post multi-year APR scores in the top 10 percent of all squads in their respective sports: men's cross country, women's cross country, women's golf and women's volleyball.
- 105 of Creighton's 237 student-athletes (44.3 percent) earned a 3.5 GPA or better during the spring 2011 semester. Eight of these athletes were women's basketball players.
- Creighton had 135 student-athletes make the Dean's List at least once last year, including 73 student-athletes who earned the honor both semesters.
- 18 student-athletes (7.6 percent) earned perfect 4.0 GPAs during the spring 2011 semester, including Sam Schuett of the women's basketball team.
- 180 student-athletes (75.9 percent) earned a 3.0 GPA or better in the spring 2011 semester, including 11 of the 12 women's basketball players on the roster.
- 11 teams (women's basketball, crew, men's cross country, women's cross country, men's golf, women's golf, women's soccer, softball, men's tennis, women's tennis and volleyball) had team GPAs of 3.15 or better and every team owns a cumulative GPA of 2.82 or better.
- Creighton owns 33 CoSIDA Academic All-American honors. Last year, baseball pitcher Ty Blach was a third-team Academic All-American.

2003 MVC Regular-Season Champs

Jim Flanery is in his 10th season as Creighton's head coach and his 20th straight season on the Bluejay bench. The first nine years of the Flanery era have seen the coach bring continued success to the University with which he has been affiliated for over half of his life. Flanery joined a select group of coaches last year, as he eclipsed 100 Missouri Valley Conference wins. His 105 MVC victories since the start of the 2002 season are tops in the league, as no other school in The Valley has reached 100 league wins in that span.

With Flanery at the helm over the past nine seasons, the Bluejays have appeared in the postseason WNIT seven times, recorded five 20-win seasons, captured a Missouri Valley Conference regular-season championship, played in the MVC Tournament championship game three times, made two appearances in the postseason WNIT Final Four and captured the first postseason national championship in school history by winning the 2004 WNIT.

Individually, he became the winningest rookie coach in school and league history with 24 wins during the 2002-03 season. The 48 wins his teams compiled during his first two seasons with the Bluejays has never been topped in MVC history. He begins his 10th season on the Bluejay bench tied for second in school history with 170 career wins and as one of only seven coaches in league history to reach the 100-win milestone in league play.

The Bluejays played in the WNIT in each of Flanery's first three seasons, moving Creighton's streak of postseason appearances to four consecutive years – a school record. The Jays notched 24 wins in both of his first two years as head coach to continue a trend the 2001-02 squad started, becoming the first team in league history to record three straight seasons with at least 24 victories.

His teams have also been some of the best to put on the Bluejay uniform, setting numerous school records. Before his arrival, Creighton teams had made at least 200 three-pointers in a season just twice in 29 seasons. Including last year, the Bluejays have now eclipsed 200 three-point field goals in a season in six of Flanery's nine campaigns at the helm, setting school records for three-point field goals made in a season in each of his first two years as head coach.

In 2008-09, the Jays allowed just 56 points per game, the top defensive team at Creighton in over 30 years. The 2007-08 team set a school record for rebounds in a season, as the Jays pulled down 1,342 caroms. The team established a school record for blocked shots in Flanery's first campaign, only to be out-done by the 2004-05 squad. That 2004-05 team also became the most accurate free-throw shooting team in school history, shooting 75.3 percent from the line.

Creighton has proved to be a national power under Flanery's guidance, annually ranking among the NCAA elite. In 2009-10, the Bluejays ranked in the NCAA top-25 in fewest turnovers per game and three-point field goals made per game. The 2008-09 Bluejays ranked eighth in the NCAA with just 13.5 turnovers per game. The 2007-08 squad not only led the MVC with 222 three-point field goals made, but ranked 27th in the NCAA in three-point field goals made per game. In 2005-06, the Jays ranked 22nd in the country, making 6.7 treys per game. The 2004-05 team ranked in the top-25 in the NCAA in points per game, three-pointers per game, fewest turnovers per game and free-throw shooting. The Jays received votes in the final USA Today / ESPN poll in 2003-04, along with ranking third in the NCAA in three-point field goals per game and 11th in fewest turnovers per game. Creighton ranked among the top-30 in the nation in three-pointers per game, steals per game, fewest turnovers per game and points per game during the 2002-03 season.

Flanery's engaging personality and exciting coaching style have made the Bluejays increasingly visible in the community. The Bluejays moved into the on-campus D.J. Sokol Arena inside the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center prior to the 2009-10 season and have posted an impressive 24-5 record in the venue. Under Flanery, the Jays have compiled a 96-30 record at home, including 64-17 in MVC play. Fans have responded to the success and set single-game and average attendance records. The top two home crowds and eight of the top-10 crowds in school history have come during Flanery's reign, while fans set an average home attendance record in 2002-03.

The Bluejays have played in the postseason WNIT in each of the last four seasons – tying a school record – and seven times in Flanery's nine seasons. The 2010-11 Bluejays finished second in the MVC for the third straight season, finishing with an 18-13 overall mark. Carli Tritz was named the MVC Freshman of the Year after setting a league record by earning MVC Newcomer of the Week honors in 9-of-17 weeks.

In 2009-10, the Jays recorded their third straight 20-win season, finishing 21-11 overall. The 20-win plateau was eclipsed for the fifth time in Flanery's first eight seasons at the helm. He also guided the Bluejays to their second straight MVC Tournament final and third in a four-year span. Megan Neuirth and Sam Schuett each earned first-team all-conference honors, CU's first duo on the MVC first-team since Laura Spanheimer and Angie Janis in 2005 – Flanery's fourth season.

The 2008-09 Bluejays logged a 22-12 record by winning 20 of their final 26 games after a 2-6 start to the year. The Jays also put together a school-record 11 straight MVC wins, the longest winning streak at Creighton since 1992. Neuirth was tabbed the MVC Defensive Player of the Year after turning in one of the greatest all-around seasons in school history, which included a school-record rebound total.

In 2007-08, Flanery and the Bluejays fell one win short of a shared MVC regular-season title and advanced to the WNIT. Their 21-12 record marked an eight-win improvement – the 15th-best turnaround in the nation that year.

Flanery earned his 100th head coaching victory against Indiana State on Jan. 31, 2008. The Jays followed that victory with their first win over a ranked opponent since 1999, topping then-No. 24 Illinois State on the Redbirds' home court on Feb. 2. The Bluejays also owned wins over Big 12 champion Kansas State and Summit League winner South Dakota State in 2007-08.

Paving the way for the successful 2007-08 campaign was a strong second half in 2006-07, led by the freshman duo of Neuirth and Schuett. Neuirth was tabbed the MVC Newcomer of the Year after leading The Valley in steals, while Schuett was named to the MVC All-Freshman Team.

The 2004-05 season witnessed Flanery engineer a 19-10 campaign and a third straight invite to the WNIT. The Jays remained among the MVC's best by tying for a second-place finish at 13-5 in conference play. The Jays went 3-0 against Big 12 teams and put together an eight-game winning streak during the heart of the season.

Flanery and the Bluejays concluded the 2003-04 season by claiming the first national postseason tournament title in school history, capturing the WNIT Championship. Their 5-0 run through the postseason was capped by a 73-52 rout of UNLV at the Omaha Civic Auditorium. Creighton arrived at the championship by clinching two road victories, topping two Pac-10 teams (Washington, Oregon State) and cruising through three home games. The Jays became the first team from the MVC to win the WNIT. Flanery's team set a then-WNIT record by making 44 three-point field goals, while also shooting an impressive 89.9 percent (71-for-79) from the free-throw line in the event.

He posted the best rookie season by a head coach in school and Valley history in 2002-03, as he guided his Bluejays to their second consecutive MVC regular-season title and a WNIT semifinal appearance. After serving as the Bluejays' top assistant coach for the previous decade, Flanery tallied a 24-9 overall record in his first season at the helm, 13-5 in The Valley.

His 24 wins surpassed his predecessor, Connie Yori, for the most successful rookie coaching campaign in school history. His win total also made him the most successful first-year coach in conference history, topping Lisa Stone's 23 wins at Drake in 2000-01. He would then tie Stone, following the 2003-04 season for the best two-year start in league history, with 48 victories.

Individuals have excelled under Flanery's mentoring. In addition to Neuirth's honors, Laura Spanheimer earned MVC Defensive Player of the Year honors twice and became the first player in league history to be named to the all-defensive team four times. Spanheimer also twice earned WNIT All-Tournament recognition. Christy Neneman was tabbed the 2004 WNIT Most Valuable Player and the 2003 MVC Player of the Year under Flanery's watch. In 2010-11, Tritz became the first MVC Freshman of the Year for the Bluejays since 1994.

He has also guided one of the top academic teams in the nation during his stint at Creighton, beginning as an assistant coach in 1992. Since 1992, the Bluejays' team grade-point average has ranked in the top 10 nationally five times, including a No. 4 ranking in 2010-11 and a No. 5 ranking in the 2009-10 WBCA Academic Top 25. Eighteen first-team MVC scholar-athletes have played for Flanery, including two Academic All-Americans, while both Spanheimer and Dayna Finch earned MVC Prairie Farms Scholar Athlete of the Year recognition.

A 1987 Creighton graduate with a bachelor of arts degree in philosophy, he was a member of the Bluejay men's basketball team from 1985 to 1987. He was also a member of the Creighton golf team during his four-year collegiate career.

Flanery was handed the reins to his first head coaching position on July 19, 2002, four weeks after Yori's resignation. He is the sixth head coach in women's hoops history at Creighton, and just the third since 1980. He succeeded long-time coaching partner, Yori, who he had been on staff with since his graduate assistant days at CU in the late 1980s.

Following his graduation, Flanery joined current Director of Athletics Bruce Rasmussen's Bluejay coaching staff as a graduate assistant for the 1987-88 season. He remained on the CU women's basketball staff through the 1989-90 season, before heading to Loras College (Iowa) for two seasons when Yori was named head basketball coach and hired Flanery as her assistant prior to the 1990-91 season.

When Yori was tabbed as the head coach at Creighton prior to the 1992-93 season, Flanery once again joined forces with her to continue the winning tradition Rasmussen had established at Creighton. As Yori's top assistant, Flanery and the Bluejays notched a 170-115 record in a 10-year span. The Jays made two appearances in the NCAA Tournament and earned one invite to the WNIT with Flanery on the sidelines as an assistant.

Flanery, 46, has a 2-year-old son, Jackson. He is originally from Guthrie Center, Iowa, where he starred on the basketball, baseball and golf teams at Guthrie Center High School.

Steve Huber

Assistant Coach

Sixth Season

Illinois State, 1982

Huber's Coaching Resume

Creighton Assistant Coach, 2006-present
 Central Missouri Assistant Coach, 2004-06
 Louisville Assistant Coach, 2002-03
 San Diego State Assistant Coach, 1999-02
 Benedictine Head Coach, 1994-99
 Bradley Assistant Coach, 1993-94
 Northwest Missouri State Assistant Men's Coach, 1986-88
 St. Cloud State Assistant Men's Coach, 1982-84

Steve Huber is in his sixth season on the Creighton coaching staff. The Illinois State graduate has previously served as a head coach at the NAIA level and been involved with coaching for over 25 years. He serves as the recruiting coordinator for the Bluejays.

"Steve is an extremely hard worker who has been around the game and learned it from some pretty good people," said head coach Jim Flanery. "He is passionate and incredibly connected when it comes to recruiting. Steve believes in the direction of this program and is committed to making it even better. He challenges our staff and players to set the bar even higher than we have in the past."

Along with his recruiting duties, Huber works with post players on the court and coordinates team travel. The Bluejays have advanced to the postseason in four of his first five seasons on the bench. He helped former Bluejay forward Sara Cain double her scoring average between her sophomore and junior seasons, as she earned second-team all-Missouri Valley Conference honors as a senior.

Huber has also helped the outside shooting of former Bluejay all-conference performers Sam Schuett and Megan Neuvirth. Huber worked with Neuvirth prior to her junior season, helping her shoot 35.7 percent (51-143) from three-point range after she was a combined 6-for-32 (.188) from long range in her first two seasons. Schuett ranked 18th in the NCAA in three-point percentage in 2009-10, leading the MVC by shooting 42.2 percent from beyond the arc – as Huber's coaching helped Schuett to a 10 percent jump in her long range accuracy between her sophomore and junior seasons.

Huber came to Omaha following a two-year stint as an assistant at the University of Central Missouri. In his two seasons at UCM, where he also served as the recruiting coordinator, the Jennies advanced to the NCAA Division II tournament twice and compiled a 45-18 record.

Prior to his time at Central Missouri, he worked as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Louisville and San Diego State. His recruiting class at Louisville was given top-25 recognition, and he had honorable mention recruiting classes in his time in San Diego. He broke into the Division I ranks as an assistant at Bradley during the 1993-94 season.

Huber spent five seasons as a head coach at Benedictine College in Atchison, Kan., from 1994-99. He guided the Ravens to three NAIA national tournaments, two conference titles and a 108-55 record. He was tabbed the NAIA District Three Coach of the Year in 1997-98 and twice earned conference Coach of the Year honors. His accomplishments at Benedictine are even more impressive when considering the Ravens had just 10 combined wins in the three seasons prior to his arrival, including an 0-25 season the year before his hiring.

He began his coaching career on the men's side, serving as an assistant at St. Cloud State in Minnesota from 1982-84. He was also a men's assistant at Northwest Missouri State from 1986-88, earning his master's degree in education from the school in 1988.

During the 1990s, Huber also branched out as owner of High Five Basketball Camps, and coordinator of the Kansas City Junior College Jamboree, one of the largest preseason JUCO tournaments in the nation. High Five Basketball Camps, a college exposure basketball camp, was one of the top recruiting camps in the nation. His scouting service had over 150 subscribers, including more 110 Division I institutions.

Huber, a Springfield, Ill., native, earned his undergraduate degree in education from Illinois State in 1982, before receiving his master's from Northwest Missouri State in 1988.

He and his wife, Linda, have two children, Arielle (20) and Blake (16), and reside in Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Creighton Graduate Manager, 2004-06

Bellevue (Neb.) West High School Asst. Coach, 2003-04

Creighton
UNIVERSITY

Jenny Vickers returns for her eighth season on the Creighton women's basketball staff and her sixth as an assistant coach, after serving as the graduate manager for two seasons.

Vickers is responsible for coordinating camps, marketing the team and community service, along with her on-court duties working with forwards and posts.

"Jenny is bright, talented and organized," said head coach Jim Flanery. "She cares a lot about our players and shows that in many ways. Jenny also has a tremendous appreciation for Creighton, and she recruits and coaches with that affection on her sleeve. She's very dependable and loyal too."

Her coaching of forwards Megan Neuirth and Sam Schuett helped the duo to impressive freshman campaigns in 2006-07. Neuirth led the team and Missouri Valley Conference in steals, topped the team in rebounding and earned league Newcomer of the Year honors, while Schuett led the Jays in three-point shooting and earned MVC All-Freshman Team recognition. Neuirth, the 2008-09 MVC Defensive Player of the Year, had an outstanding career, finishing with more than 1,200 points and a school-record 929 career rebounds. Both Neuirth and Schuett earned first-team all-conference honors in 2009-10.

The former Jenny Burns was a forward for the Bluejays from 1999 through 2003. Prior to returning to the Bluejay bench, Vickers spent the 2003-04 season as an intern in the Creighton athletics department working with both marketing and ticketing. She also spent a semester each as a student teacher and a substitute teacher in the Bellevue, Neb., school district.

While working at Bellevue West High School, Vickers coached the girl's junior varsity basketball team. She has also coached with the Crusaders summer basketball program in the Omaha area.

The Minnetonka, Minn., native was a starter on Creighton's back-to-back Missouri Valley Conference regular-season championship teams in 2001-02 and 2002-03. She was a major contributor to Creighton's 2002 NCAA Tournament team and 2003 WNIT Final Four squad.

Vickers was twice named to the MVC scholar-athlete first-team and earned CoSIDA Academic All-District VII Second-Team accolades as a senior while graduating with a 3.96 grade-point average. She led the Jays in blocked shots as a senior and finished her career ranked in the top-10 in Creighton career blocked shots. Despite battling injuries during her first two seasons, she ranked eighth in games played when she finished her career.

Vickers earned bachelor of arts degrees in history and secondary education in December 2003.

She and her husband, Steve, reside in Omaha and have one son, Connor, who was born March 26, 2010.

Carrie Moore

Assistant Coach
Second Season
Western Michigan, 2007

Moore's Coaching Resume

Creighton Assistant Coach, 2010-present
Princeton Director of Basketball Operations, 2008-10

Creighton
UNIVERSITY

Carrie Moore is back for her second season as an assistant coach on the Creighton women's basketball staff. Prior to her move to Omaha, she spent two seasons as the director of basketball operations at Princeton University. Her roles with the Bluejays include oversight of academics, compliance and newsletters, while she is also involved in recruiting and on-court work with the guards.

"Carrie made a super impact in her first year at Creighton," said head coach Jim Flanery following Moore's first season in 2010-11. "She connected easily with players and fit in well with our staff. She is going to really help us on the court because she doesn't have to look too far back to recall many of the things it takes to be highly successful and competitive as a player. Carrie enjoys the recruiting side of things, and her personality and energy has already helped us in that area. She is terrific with the social media, and we'll continue to utilize her talents there."

In Moore's first season on the bench, she helped the Bluejays to an 18-13 record and an appearance in the postseason WNIT. Carli Tritz was named the MVC Freshman of the Year after the rookie guard led the team in steals and assists. The Jays ranked in the top-40 in assist-turnover ratio and fewest turnovers per game in the NCAA in 2010-11.

At Princeton, Moore was part of the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance in 2009-10, as the Tigers went 26-3 on the season, including 14-0 in Ivy League play. In her two seasons at Princeton, the Tigers posted a 40-17 record.

A native of Lathrup Village, Mich., she attended Western Michigan, where she enjoyed a record-setting career from 2003-07. The 2007 Mid-American Conference Co-Player of the Year, she led the NCAA in scoring, averaging 25.4 points per game as a senior. Her final campaign also saw her named CoSIDA Academic All-America Second-Team and earn Kodak Honorable Mention All-America honors.

The three-time first-team all-MAC performer finished her career at WMU as the school's all-time leading scorer, pouring in 2,224 points in her 120 career games – all starts. She set nine school records and four MAC records during her outstanding 2006-07 senior season, becoming the only MAC player to ever lead the NCAA in scoring. Her 813 points, 272 field goals and 217 free throws as a senior are among the records she owns, while her 41-point performance against Detroit during her senior season also established a school mark.

In addition to her academic All-America nod, she was a two-time academic all-district first-teamer and three-time first-team academic all-conference honoree. Her career averages were 18.5 points, 7.0 rebounds and 2.8 assists per game.

Moore was hired at Princeton after playing one year of professional basketball in Poland. Following graduation and before her stint in Poland, she signed a free agent contract with the Phoenix Mercury of the WNBA.

Moore graduated magna cum laude with a journalism degree from Western Michigan in 2007.

Sara Cain

Director of Basketball
Operations
Third Season
Creighton, 2008

Sara Cain returns for her third season on the Creighton staff, moving from a graduate manager position into her new role as the Director of Basketball Operations. Among her many duties, the former Bluejay captain is involved with film exchange, game management and camps as part of the Bluejay staff.

A two-year starter for the Bluejays, Cain started 64 of the 121 games she played in from 2004-08. The forward concluded her career ranked fifth in school history in games played and eighth with a 75.9 career free-throw percentage.

The Walford, Iowa, native was a McDonald's All-American nominee at Cedar Rapids Prairie High School before attending Creighton. Cain had a breakout junior campaign with the Jays, leading the team with 10.6 points per game, scoring more points as a junior than her first two seasons combined. She concluded her junior season with a career-high 24 points in the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament championship game and earned MVC All-Tournament Team honors for her play in the event.

As a senior, she topped the team with 19 double-figure scoring games for the second straight season, finishing with 10.5 points and a career-best 5.5 rebounds per game to earn second-team all-MVC honors. She was a two-time MVC Scholar-Athlete Second-Team selection, and was named to the Division I-AAA Athletics Directors Association Scholar-Athlete Team and the ESPN The Magazine CoSIDA Academic All-District VII Second-Team as a senior. A dean's list honoree all four years, she finished her career with 894 points and 483 rebounds.

Cain's older twin brothers, Nathan and Brett, were also collegiate athletes, playing football at Nebraska-Omaha and basketball at Wayne State (Neb.), respectively, while younger sister Lindsey played basketball at Northern Iowa.

Cain earned her undergraduate degree in exercise science with a minor in biology from Creighton in 2008.

Game 1

Liberty 35
Creighton 40

November 12, 2010

Reynolds Coliseum • Raleigh, N.C.
Sheraton Raleigh Wolfpack Invitational

Kelsey Woodard drained three second-half three-pointers to help the Creighton women's basketball team overcome a four-point halftime deficit and knock off Liberty 40-35 to open the season. Liberty, an NCAA Tournament team in 2009-10, scored just one field goal in the second half. The Flames led 24-20 at the half and would lead 31-30 with 6:21 to play, before Woodard's third three-pointer of the half with 5:34 to play gave the Bluejays back the lead and Creighton would never trail again. Tied at 35 inside of a minute to play, the Jays sank five free throws in the final 45 seconds to earn the victory. The 40 points were the fewest scored in a Bluejay win since 1977 and Liberty's 35 points were its fewest scored in a game since 1993. The combined point total of 75 was the lowest scoring women's game in the storied history of Reynolds Coliseum.

Game 2

Creighton 71
North Carolina State 84

November 13, 2010

Reynolds Coliseum • Raleigh, N.C.
Sheraton Raleigh Wolfpack Invitational

North Carolina State used a 14-0 run midway through the second half to pull away from Creighton, defeating the Bluejays 84-71 in the championship game of the Sheraton Raleigh Wolfpack Invitational. Sarah Nelson's double-double of 14 points and 10 rebounds wasn't enough to overcome CU's first ever ACC opponent. After a Carli Tritz layup with 11:37 to play cut the NC State lead to 53-51, the Wolfpack scored 14 unanswered points to surge ahead 67-51 and take control of the game. Sarah Nelson's 14 points led five Bluejays in double figures, while Kelsey Woodard chipped in 11 points to earn all-tournament recognition. Kellie Nelson (12), Sam Schuett (11) and Tritz (10) also scored in double figures for the Bluejays. The double-double for Sarah Nelson was the first by a Bluejay freshman since the 2007-08 season. NC State's Amber White earned tournament MVP honors, scoring a career-high 29 points. Lincoln, Neb., native Marissa Kastanek scored 14 of her 18 points in the second half.

Game 3

Creighton 53
Bowling Green 79

November 15, 2010

Anderson Arena • Bowling Green, Ohio

The Bluejays and Falcons were tied at 30 at halftime, following a first half which featured four lead changes and six ties. The second half was a different story, as the home team outscored the visitors 49-23 for a 26-point win. Bowling Green, which had won six straight Mid-American Conference regular-season championships, captured its 31st straight regular-season home win, while dropping the Jays to 1-2 on their season-opening three-game road trip. During a 31-10 run by BGSU in the second half, the Falcons scored 16 unanswered points while the Bluejays went scoreless for better than nine minutes. Kelsey Woodard became the fourth player in school history and 22nd in MVC history to eclipse 200 career three-pointers.

Game 4

Wyoming 49
Creighton 60

November 20, 2010

D.J. Sokol Arena • Omaha, Neb.

Creighton scored the first 13 points of the game and never looked back, posting a 60-49 win over Wyoming in its home opener. The Bluejays jumped out to a 13-0 lead, as Wyoming missed its first six shots in the opening six minutes. After early scores by Kellie Nelson and Kelsey Woodard, Carli Tritz hit a free throw and lay-up to make it 7-0. Woodard then buried back-to-back three-pointers just 38 seconds apart to give Creighton a 13-0 edge. The Jays led 28-14 at the half and never trailed in the win. CU's largest lead in the win was 24 points, up 54-30 with just under five minutes to play before Wyoming scored 13 straight points and closed the game on a 19-6 run. Woodard led all players with 14 points. With eight rebounds, Sarah Nelson led the team in rebounding for the third straight game, while her four assists tied Sam Schuett and Ally Jensen for game-high honors. Tritz scored all 10 of her points in the first half of her home debut.

Game 5

Marquette 61
Creighton 63

November 28, 2010

D.J. Sokol Arena • Omaha, Neb.

Carli Tritz sank a pair of free throws with 14.3 seconds left on the clock to give the Bluejays a 63-61 win over Marquette. The Bluejays overcame a nine-point second half deficit to deliver the Golden Eagles their first loss of the season. Tritz and fellow reserve freshman Sarah Nelson each scored in double figures as the Bluejay bench outscored the Marquette bench 22-0. Marquette led 28-26 at halftime after the first half featured 12 lead changes. In the second half, MU jumped up by nine, using a 10-2 run to go up 41-32 with 13:39 to play. The Bluejays responded to the MU run by scoring six of the game's next seven points. After a pair of Marquette free throws gave the Eagles a 44-38 lead with 11:49 to play, the Jays put together a 10-2 run of their own to go ahead 48-46 with 7:38 left. Angel Robinson, who scored an arena-record 32 points, would tie the game at 61 with less than 20 seconds to play before Tritz was fouled in the backcourt to set up the game-winning free throws. Kelsey Woodard (13) led five Bluejays in double figures and Sam Schuett had a career-high eight assists.

Game 6

Creighton 79
South Dakota 70

December 2, 2010
DakotaDome • Vermillion, S.D.

Creighton made 9-of-16 three-pointers and shot 48.9 percent from the field in capturing a 79-70 win at South Dakota in its first trip to Vermillion since 1983. Creighton surged to an early eight-point lead while making its first four attempts from three-point range. USD fought back to make it a one-point game at half-time, with CU owning a 36-35 lead at the break, keyed by 7-of-11 three-pointers made. The Coyotes made the first basket after halftime to reclaim the lead. CU responded with six straight points only to have the home team answer with a 7-0 scoring burst. Creighton bounced back with an 8-0 run and would take its first double-digit lead of the game up 61-51 with 5:41 to play. Kelsey Woodard scored a game-high 24 points, hitting 7-of-10 shots from the floor, 3-of-4 from long range and 7-of-8 at the free throw line. Sam Schuett scored 16 of her 19 points in the second half and had game-highs with nine rebounds and six assists. Ally Jensen didn't miss a shot in the game, making all three of her three-point attempts and both free throws for her 11 points.

Game 7

Nebraska 63
Creighton 55

December 8, 2010
D.J. Sokol Arena • Omaha, Neb.

Nebraska made 10 of its first 12 shots to help build an 11-point first half lead and it never looked back in snapping Creighton's nine-game home winning streak. NU owned a 36-25 lead at halftime and moved to a 17-point lead in the second half before a late Creighton run gave life to the D.J. Sokol Arena crowd of 2,061. The Bluejays used a 15-4 run down the stretch, limiting the Huskers to just two field goals in the final 10 minutes of the game, but the 17-point deficit proved too much to overcome for the Jays. NU, ranked 22nd in the coaches' poll, handed Creighton just its fourth loss at its new home. Carli Tritz led all players with 21 points for the highest scoring game by a Bluejay freshman since the 2007-08 season. Sam Schuett became the 23rd player in school history to reach 1,000 career points and the seventh player to reach 700 career rebounds. Schuett had a game-high 13 rebounds, one off of her career-high. The Jays could not overcome an off-shooting night from their top two scorers however, as Schuett and Kelsey Woodard combined to go 2-for-20 in the loss.

Game 8

Creighton 54
#18 Notre Dame 91

December 11, 2010
Purcell Pavilion • South Bend, Ind.

Hot shooting helped 18th-ranked Notre Dame cruise to a 91-54 win over Creighton. Notre Dame made 15 of its first 17 shots to start the second half and pull away from the Bluejays. The Fighting Irish shot 63.3 percent from the field, including 65.5 percent in the second half to improve to 7-1 at home. Creighton played nearly even with the nationally-ranked Irish for the first 15 minutes of the game before the home team used a 14-2 run to end the half. The Irish out-scored the Bluejays 54-26 in the paint and became the first team of the year to have an advantage in bench points against the Jays (34-11). Sam Schuett led the Bluejays with 13 points and eight rebounds. Kelsey Woodard and Ally Jensen each scored 11 points, with Jensen making 3-of-7 three-pointers in CU's sixth straight loss to an AP top 25 team.

Game 9

North Dakota State 44
Creighton 54

December 18, 2010

D.J. Sokol Arena • Omaha, Neb.

Nine Bluejays scored between four and 11 points in Creighton's victory over North Dakota State. After missing their first eight shots of the game and starting 1-of-12 from the floor, the Bluejays made 11-of-17 shots to end the first half and claim a 14-point halftime lead. The Jays used an 11-0 run to pull away from the Bison in the first half, taking a 30-16 lead to the break. CU again started slowly in the second half, missing its first seven shots after the break, but NDSU could only get as close as nine points in the second half. The Jays led by 19 with 1:59 to play, but the Bison scored the game's final nine points to make the final margin just 10 points. Sam Schuett led the balanced Bluejay offense with 11 points. Carli Tritz filled up the stat sheet with seven points, three rebounds, three assists and game-high three steals for the Bluejays. The CU bench outscored the NDSU bench 20-3. Freshman Sarah Nelson earned her first career start, leading the team with seven rebounds. Jasmin Corbin logged a career-high four boards off the bench.

Game 10

North Dakota 57
Creighton 96

December 20, 2010

D.J. Sokol Arena • Omaha, Neb.

Five Bluejays scored in double figures as Creighton posted a 96-57 win over North Dakota. CU's 96 points were its most since 2003, as the Jays finished with season highs in field-goal percentage (.611), three-pointers (12), assists (24) and field goals (33), adding 12 steals and nine blocks. Kelsey Woodard led the Bluejays with 19 points, as all 10 players who saw playing time had an assist and seven of the 10 Jays scored at least nine points. Creighton trailed 7-0 to start the game and was down 11-9 before an 11-0 run gave the Jays control of the game. The Jays led 41-21 at halftime and never allowed UND to get closer than 20 points in the second half. McKenzie Fujan had a career-high nine points, Jasmin Corbin led the Jays with a career-best five assists and DaNaee Moore swiped a career-high three steals. Carli Tritz made all four of her field goal attempts and finished with nine points in her first career start.

Game 11

Kansas 64
Creighton 58

December 22, 2010

CenturyLink Center Omaha • Omaha, Neb.

An 11-0 run midway through the second half helped Kansas claim a 64-58 victory over the Bluejays. Kelsey Woodard scored more than 20 points for the 10th time in her career, leading all players with 21. Creighton fell behind 7-2 in the opening minutes and KU later used a 13-2 run to push ahead 20-8. The Jays fought back, closing the gap to seven points and trailed 29-22 at intermission. CU scored the first nine points of the second half to take its first lead of the game at 31-29. The Jays would extend their lead to 37-33 on an old-fashioned three-point play by Sam Schuett. The Jays were up 39-35 before Kansas made five straight shots from the field to key an 11-0 run and give it the lead for good. Woodard led Creighton with 21 points, making nine of her career-high 20 field goal attempts. The senior hit 3-of-6 three-pointers to move into 15th all-time in MVC history with 216 career triples. The game was played at CenturyLink Center Omaha, just the second women's game ever held at the venue which opened in 2003.

Drake 51
Creighton 58

December 31, 2010

D.J. Sokol Arena • Omaha, Neb.

Sam Schuett had 18 points and 11 rebounds for her first double-double of the season and Carli Tritz had 15 points, six rebounds and five steals as the Bluejays opened MVC play with a win over Drake. Creighton led nearly the entire first half, but a 35-foot bank shot by Kristin Turk at the halftime buzzer helped Drake to a 23-22 halftime lead. DU maintained momentum after the break, pushing ahead by six, up 30-24 less than four minutes in to the second half. Schuett and Tritz combined for a quick 7-0 burst midway through the half to push the Bluejays ahead by eight, leading 48-40 with six minutes to play. Drake would never get closer than three points over the final six minutes as CU grabbed its fifth straight win in the series with DU. The 15 points by Tritz were the most points scored by a Bluejay freshman in her Valley debut since Missy Miller scored 23 in CU's first ever MVC game in 1993. Schuett's double-double was the 14th of her career and 12th against an MVC opponent. Kelsey Woodard chipped in 11 points for the Bluejays. The Jays limited the MVC's leading scorer, Turk (19.6), to a season-low 11 points.

Creighton 81
Evansville 55

January 6, 2011

Roberts Stadium • Evansville, Ind.

Four Bluejays scored in double figures as the Bluejays cruised to a 26-point win in their first Valley road game of the year. Kelsey Woodard led all players with 17 points and freshman Alyssa Kamphaus scored a career-best 12 points in just seven minutes off the bench as the Bluejays shot 70.4 percent from the field in the second half to close out the blowout road win. Carli Tritz and Sam Schuett each chipped in 10 points as well. The Bluejays led by as many as 15 points before taking a 37-24 lead into the halftime break. UE would get no closer than 13 points in the second half, as Creighton opened the second half on an 11-3 run to put the game away. The final margin of 26 points was CU's largest lead of the game. Jordan Garrison made her collegiate debut in the win, after not playing in the Jays' first 12 games because of a leg injury.

Game 14

Creighton 68
Southern Illinois 51

January 8, 2011

SIU Arena • Carbondale, Ill.

SIU scored the first five points and led 7-2 before the Bluejays scored the next eight points of the game to take a 10-7 lead, with the last six points coming on three-pointers from Kelsey Woodard. The Salukis regained an 11-10 lead, but the Bluejays scored five unanswered points to claim the lead and SIU would never lead again, as the Bluejays owned just a 28-25 halftime lead. For the second straight game, CU opened the second half on an 11-3 run to put the score at 39-28 on a Carli Tritz jumper just 4:30 into the half. Another Tritz bucket with 10:39 to play gave the Jays a 49-39 lead and Creighton would own a double-digit lead for the remainder of the game. Woodard led all players with 18 points, moving into 12th on the CU career scoring list with 1,270 points and 13th in MVC history with 224 career three-pointers. Tritz finished with 12 points, while Kellie Nelson chipped in 10 points. Creighton scored 29 points off of SIU's 20 turnovers.

Northern Iowa 58
Creighton 57

January 13, 2011

D.J. Sokol Arena • Omaha, Neb.

In a game with two ties and four lead changes in the final four minutes, UNI emerged with its second straight one-point win in the series with Creighton, as Jacqui Kalin's fastbreak lay-up with 1:05 left proved to be the game-winner in a 58-57 Panther win. The Bluejays trailed by nine with 6:30 left, but a 10-0 run over the next three minutes gave CU a 55-54 lead with 3:28 to play after Sam Schuett completed a three-point play. The score didn't change until Kalin made a pair of free throws with 1:39 left. The Jays responded with a Carli Tritz lay-up with 76 seconds to play for a 57-56 lead, but Kalin answered by beating the CU defense down the court for what proved to be the game-winning lay-up. CU attempted one shot and committed two turnovers in the final minute of play. Schuett finished with 14 points and 12 rebounds for her second double-double of the year, tying Kellie Nelson for team-high scoring honors. Tritz had career-highs with 10 rebounds and seven assists.

Bradley 58
Creighton 73

January 15, 2011

D.J. Sokol Arena • Omaha, Neb.

Creighton never trailed and received a dominating performance by freshman Carli Tritz, as the Bluejays cruised to a 15-point win over Bradley. Tritz led the team with 17 points, eight rebounds, five assists and three steals. Kellie Nelson sank a pair of free throws on the Jays' first possession and despite not making a field goal for nearly the first four minutes, the Bluejays still did not trail as BU struggled to get its offense going. The Braves closed the half on a 7-0 run over the final 97 seconds, with MacKenzie Wescott scoring all seven points for BU to make the halftime score 34-29 in favor of CU. Tritz's third three-pointer of the second half at the 9:26 mark, gave Creighton a 12-point lead, up 57-45. The Bluejays held their double-digit lead for the remainder of the game, leading by as many as 16 down the stretch. Creighton scored 20 points off of Bradley's 23 turnovers.

Creighton 57
Illinois State 70

January 20, 2011

Redbird Arena • Normal, Ill.

Sarah Nelson came off the bench to score a career-high 17 points, but it wasn't enough to overcome a fast start by the Redbirds. ISU jumped out to a 20-8 lead and the Bluejays couldn't catch up, trailing by nine at halftime after scoring the final four points of the first half. Nelson scored 15 points in the second half, including back-to-back baskets with just under seven minutes to play, which cut the ISU lead to 45-40. The Redbirds answered CU's quick burst with a 10-2 run to secure the victory. Kelsey Woodard tied Nelson for team-high honors with 17 points. ISU's Emily Hanley led all players with 21 points and eight rebounds, while Katie Broadway came off the bench and poured in 16 points, including a 4-for-4 performance from three-point range. For the first time in her career, freshman Carli Tritz did not record a steal in the loss.

Creighton 62
Indiana State 53

January 22, 2011

Hulman Center • Terre Haute, Ind.

Creighton never trailed in picking up a nine-point win at Indiana State. The Bluejays scored the first four points of the game and led 11-3 just over four minutes into the game, as the Sycamores committed four turnovers in the first four minutes of play. The Sycamores would get within five points, but the Jays would push ahead 23-10 with 8:19 left in the first half. The Jays enjoyed their largest lead of the half as the clock hit zero thanks to Jasmin Corbin's buzzer-beating three-pointer. The score at halftime was 39-24 in favor of the Jays. Carli Tritz led the team with 18 points, career-high six steals, five assists and had four rebounds. Schuett made 6-of-6 free throws and 3-of-8 three-pointers, finishing with 17 points and team-high eight rebounds. Sarah Nelson made her second career start, scoring 11 points, including nine in the first half.

January 27, 2011

D.J. Sokol Arena • Omaha, Neb.

Creighton jumped out to a 25-10 lead and never trailed in the game, moving into a second-place tie with the Lady Bears with the 12-point win. The Bluejays' 44 first-half points were a season-high, as was the 21-point halftime lead for the Jays, as they cruised to a double-digit win over the MVC preseason favorites. The Jays hit 7-of-13 three-pointers in the opening half, led by Kelsey Woodard's 14 points on 4-of-6 shooting from long range in the opening 20 minutes. Creighton forced 14 first-half turnovers from the Bears and limited leading scorer Casey Garrison to just six first-half points. MSU could not get closer than 12 points in the second half, as CU built a 23-point lead after halftime. Woodard finished with a game-high and season-high 25 points, hitting 5-of-10 three-pointers. Carli Tritz added 16 points and season-high eight assists. Kellie Nelson chipped in a season-high eight rebounds to go along with her 10 points.

Game 20

Wichita State 48
Creighton^{OT}50

January 29, 2011

D.J. Sokol Arena • Omaha, Neb.

Carli Tritz hit a pair of free throws with 4.2 seconds remaining in overtime to give the Bluejays a 50-48 win over Wichita State in the first overtime game in D.J. Sokol Arena history and in front of the largest crowd (2,121) in the venue's history. The Jays never led or trailed by more than four in a game that featured 11 ties and 10 lead changes. Tritz led all players with 17 points, as it was her two free throws with 11.5 seconds left in regulation that forced overtime. The win was Jim Flanery's 100th Missouri Valley Conference win, making him just the seventh coach in league history to reach that milestone. Creighton scored the first four points of overtime, the first two on Kelsey Woodard free throws and the next two on a basket by Sarah Nelson. CU never trailed in overtime and seven of its nine points in overtime came at the free-throw line. Nelson led the Bluejays with nine rebounds, while Tritz was a career-best 7-of-10 at the free-throw line in CU's 11th straight win over the Shockers.

Game 21

Southern Illinois 43
Creighton 62

February 3, 2011

D.J. Sokol Arena • Omaha, Neb.

Creighton started the game on a 13-2 run and never trailed in cruising to a 19-point win over the Salukis. The Bluejays forced 24 SIU turnovers, of which they converted into 28 points. Creighton logged a season-high 15 steals, the most by the Jays in nearly two years, led by DaNae Moore's career-high five and Ally Jensen's career-best four swipes. The Jays led by 15 in the first half, before SIU scored six points in the final 33 seconds of the half, to cut the halftime score to 30-21. Creighton scored the first 10 points after halftime and led by at least 15 points the rest of the way. CU's largest lead of the night came with 8:08 remaining when a Kelsey Woodard three-pointer put the Jays ahead 56-30. Woodard moved into a tie for 10th place in school history with 1,356 career points, leading the Jays with 13 points in the win. Sam Schuett logged her third double-double of the year and 16th of her career, while all 11 Bluejays played at least 10 minutes in the blowout.

Evansville 50
Creighton 60

February 5, 2011

D.J. Sokol Arena • Omaha, Neb.

Creighton moved its winning streak to five with a 60-50 win over Evansville. The win concluded a perfect 4-0 home stand for the Bluejays, their longest Valley home stand since 1999. The Bluejays led 25-22 at halftime and led 30-26 before falling behind 32-30 after six unanswered points from the Purple Aces. CU scored the next five points and reclaimed the lead for good. An 11-3 run by the Bluejays midway through the second half gave them control of the game and a 46-37 lead with 10:45 to play. The Jays were a perfect 9-of-9 at the free-throw line in the second half, including six makes in the final 42 seconds. Kelsey Woodard led all players with 16 points, moving into 10th place on the CU career scoring charts. Sam Schuett added 15 points and eight rebounds for the Jays, while Sarah Nelson chipped in 14 points and career-high three blocked shots. One game after both players had career-highs in steals, DaNae Moore and Ally Jensen tied for game-high honors with three steals each.

Game 23

Creighton 52
Northern Iowa 60

February 10, 2011

McLeod Center • Cedar Falls, Iowa

First-place UNI opened the second half on a 16-3 run after closing the first half on an 11-3 run to take control of the game and sweep the season series from the Bluejays. The Jays jumped out to a 12-4 lead and held the lead throughout most of the first half, but UNI scored the final four points of the half to take a 29-28 lead into halftime. CU scored the first basket after the half before UNI rattled off 14 unanswered points and never looked back in winning its 10th straight game. Freshman Carli Tritz tried to keep the Jays in the game, making CU's first six field goals after halftime and scoring 16 of the Jays' first 19 points in the second half. Tritz would finish with a game-high 18 points in defeat, as the Jays' five-game winning streak was snapped. Bluejay seniors Kelsey Woodard and Sam Schuett combined for 13 points, on 5-of-19 shooting from the field, while fellow senior Kellie Nelson missed the game due to an injury. UNI's Jacqui Kalin tied for the team-lead with 15 points, making all 12 of her free-throw attempts. K.K. Armstrong had 15 points off the bench for the Panthers.

Game 24

Creighton 72
Bradley 50

February 12, 2011

Renaissance Coliseum • Peoria, Ill.

Creighton tied a season-high with 12 three-point field goals made in a 72-50 win at Bradley. The Bluejays shot a season-high 57.1 percent from three-point range in cruising to their first win on Bradley's home floor since 2007. Kelsey Woodard led all players with 21 points, as the senior knocked down 5-of-9 three-pointers in the victory. A three-point play by BU's Katie Yohn put the Braves in front 12-7 for their largest lead of the game with 13:49 left in the opening half. With the score even at 16, Woodard scored consecutive baskets and she scored 10 straight points for the Jays, giving them the lead for good. CU closed the first half on an 8-2 run to lead 32-22 at the half. The Jays then poured it on in the second half, scoring the first 10 points after halftime as part of a 17-3 run to start the period. Sam Schuett had 14 points and game-high six assists in the win. Ally Jensen and Jasmin Corbin each hit two threes off the bench.

Game 25

Indiana State 62
Creighton 71

February 17, 2011

D.J. Sokol Arena • Omaha, Neb.

Creighton captured its seventh win in eight games with a hard fought 71-62 final over Indiana State. The Sycamores jumped out to an 8-0 lead before the Jays responded with a 22-4 run, which included 17 unanswered points by the Bluejays and featured three-pointers from Kelsey Woodard, Ally Jensen and Jasmin Corbin. Woodard hit four of her first five shots and scored nine of her team-high 15 points in the first half. The Jays led 39-32 at the half and would never trail in the second half, though the Sycamores would climb back to within one point with 9:15 to play. With a 49-48 lead, Jensen canned CU's only three of the second half and a Sam Schuett lay-up put the Bluejays ahead by six, and ISU would never get closer. Woodard tied her career-high with seven assists, including helpers on four straight baskets in the second half. Schuett and Carli Tritz added 13 points, with Tritz leading all players with four steals. Jensen had her highest scoring MVC game of the year, finishing with 12 points and 3-for-6 from three-point range in CU's sixth straight home win.

Illinois State 44
Creighton 71

February 19, 2011

D.J. Sokol Arena • Omaha, Neb.

Creighton's three seniors enjoyed a 27-point win over Illinois State on Senior Day. The trio of Kellie Nelson, Sam Schuett and Kelsey Woodard were able to come off the floor together to a standing ovation with more than four minutes left in the game as the Bluejays shot 50.9 percent from the field and 52.9 percent from three-point range in the romp. The Jays made their first six field goal attempts in building a 16-11 lead. They were ahead 22-11 less than eight minutes into the game and up 30-14 with just under nine minutes to play in the first half. CU was 14-of-21 from the field to start the game and took a 40-23 lead into the break. ISU made only four field goals in the second half, as CU led by as many as 32 points and all 11 Bluejays scored in the blowout.

Game 27

Creighton 51
Wichita State 60

February 25, 2011

Charles Koch Arena • Wichita, Kan.

Creighton committed 25 turnovers in a nine-point loss at Wichita State after entering the game ranked 12th in the NCAA with 14.1 turnovers per game. The loss snapped Creighton's 11-game winning streak in the series with the Shockers. Sam Schuett led the Bluejays with 19 points and 10 rebounds for her fourth double-double of the season, all in MVC play. WSU opened the game with the first two points and never trailed in the first half. WSU carried a 28-23 lead into halftime, as Creighton turned the ball over 13 times in the first half. A 13-3 Bluejay run midway through the second half gave them their largest lead of the night, up 44-40 with 8:11 to play, but the Jays would score just two points over the next seven minutes, while the Shockers rattled off a 15-2 run. Creighton went from the 9:31 mark until 42 seconds remained in the game without hitting a field goal, going 0-for-5 from the field with six turnovers during the Shocker run. CU's 25 turnovers were its most in an MVC game since Jan. 22, 2006 against Evansville (27).

Game 28

Creighton 65
Missouri State 73

February 27, 2011

JQH Arena • Springfield, Mo.

Kelsey Woodard's second dazzling shooting performance against Missouri State this season wasn't enough to lead the Bluejays to a victory over the Lady Bears on MSU's Senior Day. Woodard led all players with 22 points, making 5-of-10 three-pointers for the second time this season against MSU, while she also finished with a season-high nine rebounds in defeat. The first half was tightly contested, featuring 10 ties and four lead changes. Creighton's last lead of the game was at 32-30 after a Woodard jumper, but the Lady Bears would score the final five points of the first half to carry a 35-32 lead into the break. An 11-2 Lady Bear run gave MSU its largest lead, up 51-39 with 12:41 to play, but CU used its three-point shooting to climb back into the game. Woodard made three triples and Jasmin Corbin canned one to get the Bluejays back within three. CU trailed 62-60 with 5:06 to play, but could get no closer. Despite Woodard's hot hand, CU shot just 30.8 percent from long range.

Game 29

Creighton 54
Drake 65

March 5, 2011

Knapp Center • Des Moines, Iowa

Creighton made four of its first seven shots from three-point range and built an early lead at Drake, but the Bluejays went cold from long range, making only 3-of-25 shots from beyond the arc after the hot start. The loss gave the Jays their longest MVC losing streak since 2008 and their longest losing streak to end the regular-season since 1997. The Bluejays led 22-17 with 7:20 left in the first half, but the Bulldogs would close the first half on a 17-2 run – scoring the final 13 points of the half – to take control of the game. The Jays could never get closer than 11 points in the second half, finishing 7-of-32 from three-point range in the loss. Drake shot nearly 50 percent in the game, led by Rachael Hackbarth's 23 points and Kristin Turk's 18 points and five steals. Carli Tritz led the Bluejays with 15 points, five assists and five steals in 39 minutes of action. Sam Schuett grabbed her team-leading fifth double-double of the season – all coming in MVC play. Sarah Nelson chipped in 10 points off the bench.

Game 30

Wichita State 58
Creighton 52

March 11, 2011

Family Arena • St. Charles, Mo.
MVC Tournament Quarterfinal

Creighton went nearly eight minutes in the second half without making a field goal as Wichita State went on a game-deciding 12-2 run during that span beating the Bluejays 58-52 in the quarterfinals of the MVC Tournament. The Jays scored the first five points of the game, but the Shockers answered with the next six and held the lead for the remainder of the first half. Down 26-20 at halftime, the Bluejays scored the first seven points after the half, including five from Carli Tritz to take a 27-26 lead. Creighton's final lead would come following a Sarah Nelson basket with 15:38 to play, giving the Bluejays a 32-30 edge. The Jays would score only two points over the next eight minutes and wouldn't score their next field goal until 7:44 remained in the game, while WSU used a 12-2 run to take control of the game. CU got to within three in the final minute, but WSU answered with its only three-pointer of the game to seal the victory. CU was outscored 18-12 in points off turnovers.

Northwestern 89

March 17, 2011

Welsh-Ryan Arena • Evanston, Ill.
WNIT First Round

The 2010-11 season came to an end in an 89-63 loss at Northwestern in the first round of the Women's National Invitation Tournament. Carli Tritz led the Bluejays with 14 points and DaNae Moore scored a career-high 11 points, but the Bluejays couldn't overcome the hot-shooting Wildcats. Northwestern knocked down 10-of-19 three-pointers and shot 55.2 percent from the field in the 26-point win. The Wildcats became the first Bluejay opponent since 2001 to make 10 three-pointers in a game. The win improved NU to 9-0 at home in non-conference play, while the loss was Creighton's fifth straight to mark its longest losing streak to end a season since 1989 and its longest losing streak ever recorded in a winning season. Sam Schuett led CU with nine rebounds in her final collegiate game to end her career with 881 boards - third in school history. Kelsey Woodard scored eight points to finish with 1,480 in her career.

From early beginnings to its current standing on the map of college athletics, the Missouri Valley Conference continues to be proactive as The Valley enters its 105th year in 2011-12. The nation's second-oldest NCAA Division I conference is a leader in college athletics and is one of the nation's most progressive conferences.

The Missouri Valley Conference enters a new decade facing a rapidly changing environment in NCAA Division I athletics as conference expansion and realignment swept the nation in the summer of 2010. Although The Valley was untouched, the league will remain vigilant in monitoring changes or potential changes in other conferences that might impact membership, or present opportunities for expansion.

The Valley brand remains very strong, both regionally and nationally, and the great athletic tradition of The Valley remains a compelling force in recruiting student-athletes and in marketing all the MVC programs.

Men's basketball continues to be the engine that drives Valley athletic programs. With UNI's NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in 2010, the league has had four different Sweet 16 teams since 2006, and The Valley is the only non-BCS league with more than two different Sweet 16 teams in that span. The State Farm MVC Tournament continues to be a spectacular showcase for the league, and the MVC has extended the tournament agreement with the Scottrade Center that will keep Arch Madness in St. Louis through at least 2013. During the 2011 State Farm MVC Championship, the league surpassed 1 million in total attendance for the event, now in its 22nd year.

Last year, the league set a record with 12 postseason victories in men's basketball, as five different teams picked up at least one postseason win – a league first. Wichita State became the first MVC NIT champion since 1982, winning five games, including four against BCS-member schools.

While the success of men's basketball has received the greatest attention, the overall performance of league teams in virtually every sport continues to raise the national profile of the conference.

In women's basketball, five teams earned postseason berths, while 2011 marked the 12th-straight season that the Valley earned at least three postseason bids. UNI made its second consecutive NCAA Tournament trip after becoming just the fourth league team to win back-to-back State Farm MVC Tournament titles. The Conference remains committed to keeping the tournament at a neutral site at the Family Arena in St. Charles as establishing a neutral site remains a huge part of the overall efforts to improve women's basketball in The Valley.

In volleyball, a league-high four teams were invited to the 2010 NCAA Volleyball Championship, marking the fifth-straight year that multiple teams were invited to the Dance. UNI finished the season ranked No. 14, following its second straight 18-0 conference season.

In baseball, Creighton represented the league in the NCAA Tournament, as the Bluejays swept both the regular-season title and tournament titles. Although the league only received one NCAA Tournament bid, four teams ended the year in the Top 75 of the RPI, and the league ranked No. 7 in the conference RPI rankings.

In softball, two teams represented the league in the NCAA Tournament for the 11th time in conference history, as Illinois State and Missouri State advanced. Missouri State became just the second host in the history of the MVC to win the tournament, while both ISU and MSU went 1-2 in NCAA Tournament action.

In men's soccer, Creighton returned to the NCAA Championship after a one-year hiatus as the Bluejays joined State Farm MVC Tournament champion Bradley in the NCAA field. Creighton has qualified for 18 of the past 19 NCAA Championships, while The Valley has had two or more teams earn a spot in the field in each of the past four years.

Meanwhile, the success of The Valley television package is one of the great stories in the league. The MVC Television Network has blossomed into a revenue-generating vehicle and The Valley's most visible marketing tool. Also, The Valley is making video-streaming a major focus as it enters the third year of a three-year plan to upgrade the production and marketing of both institutionally-produced and conference-produced webcasts.

During the tenure of Doug Elgin, The Valley's ninth and longest-tenured commissioner, The Valley has been aggressive in hosting NCAA events in St. Louis. Since 1998, the MVC served as host for a staggering nine NCAA tournament events in the 13-year period, which has made St. Louis one of the most frequent stops on the NCAA Tournament trail. The Valley hosted Women's Final Fours in 2001 and 2009, and the Men's Final Four in 2005.

The seeds for the creation of the conference were planted by eight administrators representing five institutions, who met at the Midland Hotel in Kansas City, Mo., on Jan. 12, 1907. The five schools which formed the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Athletic Association were Washington University of St. Louis, and the state universities of Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska. Two months after the initial meeting, two more schools -- Drake University and Iowa State College -- were admitted.

In the fall of 1907, basketball became the first competitive sport. Today, the Missouri Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country and track & field (indoor and outdoor), men's and women's golf, men's and women's soccer, softball, women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis and women's volleyball.

Athletic accomplishments include four NCAA national basketball championships, 16 trips to the NCAA Final Four, a 1989 national baseball championship and 19 College World Series qualifiers. The league owns a total of 30 postseason national team championships, including Wichita State's men's basketball NIT title in 2011. In 2001, Missouri State added to The Valley women's accomplishments, as the Lady Bears advanced to the Women's Basketball Final Four in St. Louis. Creighton (2004) and Missouri State (2005) have claimed national championships (WNIT) in women's basketball, while MSU also has a 1992 NCAA Women's Final Four appearance, and Creighton (2003), Drake (1999) and Illinois State (2009) have made semifinal trips to the WNIT postseason tournament.

Indeed, the inclusion of women's programs under The Valley banner has provided a boost. The Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference -- which began in 1982 -- merged with the Missouri Valley Conference and was unveiled as part of the new conference on July 1, 1992.

While the inclusion of women's sports under a comprehensive athletic umbrella is a recent development in the league's storied history, over the years, Valley student-athletes and coaches have become household names during the league's illustrious history, both during their collegiate careers and, for some, professional careers.

In fact, The Valley began honoring that tradition in the summer of 1997, when the conference began its Athletics Hall of Fame. Hersey Hawkins of Bradley, Larry Bird of Indiana State, Wes Unseld of Louisville, Coach Henry Iba of Oklahoma State, Dave Stallworth of Wichita State, Ed Macauley of Saint Louis and Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati were members of the initial induction class. Currently, nearly 70 former players, coaches and alumni dot the league's Hall of Fame.

Men's basketball, perhaps, has the league's most storied tradition with the likes of Hall of Famers Bird and Robertson, but The Valley has also produced national-caliber student-athletes in its other sponsored sports. In 2001, Missouri State's Jackie Stiles became the first Valley woman to earn the Honda-Broderick Cup, given to the nation's top female collegiate student-athlete.

In the fall of 1997, Creighton's Johnny Torres was named the collegiate male soccer player of the year for a second straight year, while MSU's Luchi Gonzalez (2001) and Tulsa's Ryan Pore (2004) have also earned a National Player of the Year honor in men's soccer. Meanwhile league member Wichita State has produced three national collegiate players of the year in baseball, including Joe Carter (1981), Phil Stephenson (1982) and Darren Dreifort (1993).

League members include Bradley, Creighton, Drake, Evansville, Illinois State, Indiana State, Missouri State, Northern Iowa, Southern Illinois, and Wichita State. Central Arkansas and Southern Illinois-Edwardsville are affiliate members in men's soccer.

Current Creighton Athletics Director Bruce Rasmussen is the longest tenured and winningest women's basketball coach in school history, guiding the program to its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 1992.

Now in its 39th season, Creighton women's basketball is in its third season with a permanent on-campus home. With the opening of D.J. Sokol Arena in 2009, decades of roaming the Omaha area for a home court and a stretch of 18 seasons without playing a home game on campus came to an end.

Nine off-campus sites and two venues on campus hosted home games for the Bluejays in their first 36 seasons of competition before D.J. Sokol Arena and the connecting Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center opened to rave reviews during the 2009-10 season. It has provided a unique game atmosphere and powerful home court advantage while helping the Bluejays post a 24-5 (.828) record in the first two seasons at their new home.

Despite splitting time between 12 on-campus and off-campus locations for almost four decades, the Jays have still managed impressive success no matter where they have called home. The Bluejays own a .731 home winning percentage all-time, going 335-123 in recorded history, including four undefeated home seasons (1984-85, 1985-86, 1986-87 and 1991-92) and home court winning streaks of 23, 29 and 44 games.

The Bluejays are 96-30 (.762) at home under head coach Jim Flanery. Before moving to D.J. Sokol Arena, the Bluejays ended their run at the Omaha Civic Auditorium with 11 straight victories, defeating UC Riverside, 64-51, on March 21, 2009, in the first round of the WNIT to conclude play at the Civic with a 213-88 (.708) all-time mark.

In the 1970s, the Bluejays played their home games at the Civic Auditorium and the Vinardi Athletic Center on campus. The Jays notched 92 home victories in the 1980s, primarily playing at the Civic and the Kiewit Fitness Center on campus, putting together a school-record streak of 44 consecutive wins from Feb. 4, 1984 to Feb. 24, 1987.

Creighton has played host to an NCAA Tournament game and several postseason WNIT contests. In 1992, the Jays hosted Long Beach State in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, defeating the 49ers before a crowd of 3,502 at the Civic. The Jays played before 4,439 fans – the largest crowd in their home history on March 31, 2003, when they hosted Auburn in the WNIT Semifinals. Creighton hosted three postseason WNIT games in 2004, with more than 4,000 fans turning out to watch the Bluejays win the championship game over UNLV. In the debut season of D.J. Sokol Arena, the Jays knocked off Stephen F. Austin in the first round of the WNIT to welcome postseason play to the new venue.

With its recent success, 12 of the top-15 attendance figures in CU women's basketball history have come since 2001. The Jays won 101 home games between 2000-09, including one of the nation's longest home court winning streaks of 23 games from 2001 through 2003. The Bluejays logged back-to-back 9-0 home records (2001-02 & 2002-03) in MVC play, helping them post 28 consecutive home conference wins from 2001 through 2004, the second-longest such streak in MVC history.

28-4 Overall • 13-1 WAC (1st)

The first ever NCAA Tournament team at Creighton proved it belonged by winning its first tournament game, defeating Long Beach State in front of 3,502 fans at the Omaha Civic Auditorium. The explosive Creighton offense led the NCAA in both field goal (.521) and three-point field goal percentage (.452), while establishing a school-record with 80.7 points per game. Creighton Hall of Famer Kathy Halligan led five Bluejays averaging double figures with 16 points per contest. Halligan ended her record-setting career by being named the Western Athletic Conference MVP, as CU's all-time leader with 2,159 points, 309 three-point field goals and a .454 three-point field goal percentage (including a school record .554 3FG percentage as a senior). The Jays concluded their two-year affiliation with the WAC, winning both the regular-season and tournament titles, establishing a school record 16-game winning streak (also notching a separate 12-game streak) and recording a 15-0 mark at home. Shannon Struby (first) and Melissa Sanford (second) both earned all-WAC honors, while Bruce Rasmussen was named the WAC Coach of the Year in his final year on the sidelines.

1993-94 Creighton Bluejays

24-7 Overall • 14-2 MVC (2nd)

The 1993-94 Bluejays were led by first-team all-MVC performers, sophomore Becky Flynn and senior Kris Kugel. The Jays started the season by winning 15 of their first 17 contests, including a 10-game winning streak which lasted from Dec. 30 through all of January. The Jays' 106-44 win over Delaware on Dec. 30 remains the largest margin of victory (62) in school history. Flynn registered the first triple-double in school history during the winning streak. On Jan. 11, the forward scored 13 points, grabbed 11 rebounds and registered 12 assists in a 76-54 win over Missouri. Flynn earned MVC Defensive Player of the Year honors while establishing a school record 105 steals, and Holly Sivesind was tabbed the MVC Freshman of the Year. Kugel and Jenny Olson joined Flynn in averaging double figures, while finishing one-two, respectively, in field goal percentage in the Valley. Kugel ranked sixth in the NCAA with her .632 field goal percentage. The Jays went on the road in the NCAA Tournament and defeated Bowling Green, 84-73, before ending their season with a second-round loss at Texas Tech.

2001-02 Creighton Bluejays

24-7 Overall • 16-2 MVC (1st)

The Bluejays captured their first ever Missouri Valley Conference regular-season and tournament titles, while reaching the 20-win plateau for the first-time since 1993-94. The Jays used their three-point shooting to top opponents, ranking fifth in the NCAA in three-point field goals per game (8.0) while setting a school and MVC record with 249 threes. Sophomore Dayna Finch drained 91 three-pointers, to rank ninth in the NCAA. Fellow sophomore Christy Neneman joined Missouri State's Jackie Stiles (1999) as the only sophomores in conference history to earn Player of the Year recognition. Neneman was also tabbed the tournament MVP after scoring 39 points against Drake in the championship game. Finch and freshman Laura Spanheimer earned honorable-mention MVC honors, while Spanheimer also appeared on the all-freshman and all-defensive teams. The Jays put together a 10-game winning streak during their 16-2 run through the MVC and finished the season by winning 10 consecutive home games (9-0 MVC). Connie Yori was named the MVC Coach of the Year in her final season with the Bluejays. The Jays traveled to State College, Pa., (Penn State) to take on No. 23 Florida International as the 12th-seed in the Mideast Region. Appearing in their first NCAA tournament game since 1994, the Jays fell to the Golden Panthers, 73-58.

Long Beach State 66
Creighton 79

March 18, 1992

Omaha Civic Auditorium • Omaha, Neb.

Kris Kugel led four Creighton players in double figures as the Bluejays topped Long Beach State for a win in their first ever NCAA Tournament game. Kugel poured in a team-best 27 points while adding 10 rebounds for a double-double, while Becky Strathman also notched a double-dime with 11 points and 10 assists along with six steals for the Bluejays. CU closed the first half on an 11-2 run to own a 39-28 lead at the half. Long Beach State scored the first six points of the second half to close with five of the Jays, but CU responded with a 13-2 run to take control of the game. The Bluejays led by as many as 18 in the second half, when Kathy Halligan's three-pointer put CU up 66-48 with seven minutes to play. Halligan scored 19 points and added nine boards while shooting 5-of-8 from three-point range in the final home game of her Hall of Fame career. Melissa Sanford also added nine points and eight assists in the winning effort.

Stephen F. Austin 75

March 22, 1992

Johnson Coliseum • Nacogdoches, Texas

The Bluejays' bid to reach the Sweet Sixteen fell just two points short, as they lost a 75-74 heartbreaker at Stephen F. Austin. CU held a 74-73 lead with 10 seconds to play after Kathy Halligan completed an old-fashioned three-point play. The Ladyjacks answered with a basket from Lynn Corn with two seconds on the clock to end the Bluejays' season. CU trailed 62-51 with 8:21 to play when the Jays put together a 23-11 run to take the late one-point lead, only to fall in the final seconds. The Jays were led by Kris Kugel's 21 points and seven rebounds. Halligan wrapped up her career with 19 points on 5-of-9 shooting from long range, finishing with school records of 2,159 points and 309 three-pointers. Melissa Sanford, also playing in her final game, scored 14 points for the Jays, while Becky Strathman added seven assists. Creighton trailed SFA by nine at halftime and went down by as many as 17 early in the second half before staging the late comeback. The WAC champions finished with a school-record 28 wins.

Becky Strathman had a double-double with 11 points and 10 assists in Creighton's first NCAA Tournament win over Long Beach State in 1992.

Missy Miller's five three-pointers helped key Creighton's come-from-behind win over Bowling Green in 1994.

Creighton 84

#24 Bowling Green 73

March 16, 1994

Anderson Arena • Bowling Green, Ohio

The Bluejays advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament by posting an 84-73 victory over seventh-seeded Bowling Green, handing the Falcons their first home loss of the season while snapping BG's 20-game winning streak. The Jays led by as many as 13 against the 24th-ranked Falcons, before BG claimed a three-point lead with just over six minutes to play. The Bluejays closed the game on a 31-17 run over the final six minutes, guided by Missy Miller's outside shooting. Miller, who made 5-of-9 three-pointers, drained three straight treys starting with 4:37 remaining to give the Bluejays a lead they would not relinquish. She finished with 15 points in 17 minutes off the bench. Jenny Olson also came off the bench to drain 8-of-9 field goals and lead five Bluejays in double-figures with 18 points.

#9 Texas Tech 75

March 19, 1994

Municipal Coliseum • Lubbock, Texas

Defending national champion, second-seeded and ninth-ranked Texas Tech used surprising performances by reserves Janice Farris, Nikki Heath and Melinda White to end the Bluejays season in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The Lady Raider trio combined for 29 points to compliment All-American Connie Robinson's game-high 17 points. CU failed to capitalize on the late first-half absences of Tech's top two scorers - Michi Atkins missed the final 10 minutes of the half with a sprained ankle and Robinson didn't play the final six minutes because of foul trouble, but CU trailed 34-33 at the half. Robinson scored 14 of her 17 points in the second half and Atkins scored eight points and logged five rebounds in the second half. Becky Flynn led the Jays with 16 points, while Kris Kugel finished the season ranked sixth in the NCAA with a .632 field goal percentage.

2002 NCAA Tournament

Creighton 58

#23 Fla. International ...73

March 15, 2002

Bryce Jordan Center • State College, Pa.

The Bluejays concluded the 2001-02 campaign with a 73-58 loss to fifth-seed Florida International in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. Making their first appearance in the tournament since 1994, the Jays saw a 32-28 halftime lead disappear as they were outscored 45-26 in the second half. Laura Spanheimer and Christy Neneman paced the Jays with 14 points each, while Teresa Wessling chipped in 11. Creighton led the Golden Panthers by seven early in the second half, but FIU held the Jays scoreless over the final four minutes and closed the game with a 14-0 run. Creighton shot just 26 percent from the field. FIU used the inside presence of Cheryl Moody and Cornisha Cotton, who contributed 12 and 13 rebounds respectively, to own a 53-35 rebounding advantage and out-score CU 34-10 in the paint. Senior Kim Hoyer saw limited action due to a sprained ankle suffered in pre-game shootaround.

23-7 Overall, Independent

Competing in their final year as an independent, the 1986-87 team finally garnered national recognition with their third consecutive 20-win season earning them a national postseason tournament berth. The Jays opened the year with eight consecutive victories, including wins over Nebraska, Kansas State and Kansas. Creighton Hall of Famers Pam Gradoville and Tanya Warren led the Bluejays in scoring, with Gradoville establishing a then school record with 22.0 points per game (22nd in the NCAA). Warren was named to the Kodak All-District V team, averaging 18.7 points per game and dishing out a school-record 228 assists to rank 10th in the NCAA. Janet Ensign set a school record with 260 rebounds. The first postseason win in school history came on March 19, 1987, when the "Lady Jays" defeated Stephen F. Austin, 76-68, at the WNIT held in Amarillo, Texas. The Jays then lost to California in the semifinals, but bounced back to defeat Providence, 91-89 in the consolation game to finish third at the tournament.

16-14 Overall • 9-9 MVC (7th)

The Bluejays were part of a record-setting season for the Missouri Valley Conference, as the league sent six women's teams to the postseason. The Bluejays finished seventh in the regular season but helped their WNIT chances by becoming the second No. 7 seed (Wichita State, 1997) to advance to the MVC Tournament Championship game. The Jays lost to Evansville, 75-72, in overtime at the tournament and then lost at Kansas State in the WNIT to end their season. Creighton played four ranked opponents during the season, winning at 25th-ranked Missouri State on Jan. 2. The Jays never won more than three consecutive games all season, playing in a very balanced and competitive Valley. Taya Allen earned MVC Newcomer of the Year and honorable mention recognition, while Krissie Spanheimer joined Allen on the honorable mention team.

24-9 Overall • 13-5 MVC (T-1st)

The 2002-03 Bluejays coupled with the 2001-02 squad to become the first teams in school history to make consecutive postseason tournaments, this time advancing to the WNIT Final Four. The Jays earned a share of the Missouri Valley Conference regular-season title with Indiana State, but lost in the semifinals of the MVC Tournament. The Jays dominated at home, going 13-0 in the regular season, but struggled to a 7-7 record on the road in regular-season play. When the Jays were sent to Maine for the first round of the WNIT, nothing indicated they'd be able to advance past the Black Bears. But after knocking off the Bears (the team with the most wins entering the WNIT), Creighton won at Siena with a 96-point output, and then traveled to Iowa where they defeated the Hawkeyes for the second time that season. The Jays' run came to an end in front of a Civic Auditorium record 4,439 fans, as the Jays lost to eventual WNIT champion Auburn in the semifinals. The loss ended Creighton's 23-game home winning streak, the second longest streak in the NCAA at the time. For the second consecutive season, the Jays set a school and MVC record for three-point field goals made with 259, ranking sixth in the NCAA with 7.8 threes per game. Christy Neneman became the third player in league history to win consecutive conference Player of the Year honors, Laura Spanheimer was honored as the MVC Defensive Player of the Year (while ranking fifth in the NCAA with a 45.8 3FG percentage) and Head Coach Jim Flanery became the winningest rookie coach in conference history.

2004 WNIT Champions

24-9 Overall • 15-3 MVC (2nd)

Creighton capped its 2003-04 season with a five-game winning streak in the WNIT to claim the first national postseason tournament title by any athletic program in school history. The 73-52 throttling of UNLV in front of a rowdy Civic Auditorium crowd concluded one of the most successful seasons in school history. The Jays finished with a 24-9 record for the second straight year, while becoming the first team in Missouri Valley Conference history to win at least 24 games in three consecutive campaigns. Head Coach Jim Flanery improved his record to 48-18, tying the best two-year start by a coach in league history. The Jays went 12-1 at home, while their 28-game home winning streak in conference play came to an end as the second-longest such streak in MVC history. The amazing run in the WNIT was led by tournament MVP Christy Neneman. The senior closed her career by averaging 15.6 points, 6.0 rebounds and 4.6 assists per tournament game. Dayna Finch and Laura Spanheimer joined Neneman on the all-tournament team. Finch led the team with 17.0 points per WNIT game, sinking 14 three-pointers in the five wins. Spanheimer averaged 14.4 points, 5.4 rebounds, and 2.4 steals per WNIT contest. The Jays made 44 three-point field goals and shot 89.9 percent (71-79) at the free-throw line during its five-game championship run. Creighton opened the WNIT on the road with wins at Colorado State and Washington before returning home for the final three rounds of the tournament. The Jays rallied for a come-from-behind win over Oregon State in the quarterfinals, built a 72-51 lead over Richmond in their 81-72 semifinal victory and then cruised past UNLV in the championship game. Neneman and Spanheimer each earned first-team all-MVC recognition, while Finch was tabbed to the honorable-mention squad. Spanheimer was also named the MVC Defensive Player of the Year for the second straight season and earned all-defensive team honors for the third time. Finch and Spanheimer repeated on the MVC Scholar-Athlete First-Team and Finch was tabbed the MVC Scholar-Athlete of the Year. For the third consecutive season, the Bluejays set a school record for three-pointers made with 260 treys. They ranked third in the NCAA in three-pointers per game and ranked among the NCAA elite in fewest turnovers per game (11th) and steals per game (29th). Finch finished seventh in the NCAA in three-pointers per game and established MVC records with 294 career three-pointers on 766 career attempts. Spanheimer became just the second Bluejay player to record 100 steals in a season. Kristi Woodard set a school record and led the MVC by shooting 89.2 percent (66-74) from the free-throw line. Four different Bluejays earned MVC Player of the Week recognition during the season; Finch, Neneman, Spanheimer and Woodard. The Jays were rewarded for their championship season with a reception on April 18 as Omaha Mayor Mike Fahey proclaimed the day "2004 Women's National Invitation Tournament Champion Creighton Women's Basketball Day". Nebraska State Senator John Synowiecki also recognized each player and coach for their achievement.

19-10 Overall • 13-5 MVC (T-2nd)

The Bluejays continued CU's record run on the national postseason scene, appearing in their third straight WNIT. The Jays jumped out to their best start since the 1993-94 season, opening the year 12-3, while their 6-0 conference start was their best since that same 1994 squad. Creighton had won eight straight games after a 4-3 start, but had their longest winning streak under head coach Jim Flanery snapped at Missouri State on Jan. 23. In that game, the Jays lost starting forward Christy Erickson to injury for the rest of the season. The Bluejays were once again powerful at home, going 12-3 at the Civic. After an 8-1 run through the first half of conference play, which included four wins by five-points or less, they limped to a 5-4 Valley finish and lost in the quarterfinals of the MVC tournament for the second straight season. The Bluejays' season ended at Iowa in the first round of the WNIT. The Jays played close games all season, setting a school record by playing in four overtime games. The team set a school record with 130 blocked shots and a 75.3 free-throw percentage. They ranked in the NCAA top 25 in free-throw percentage (16th), fewest turnovers per game (20th), three-point field goals per game (21st) and points per game (22nd). Laura Spanheimer and Angie Janis both earned first-team all-MVC and first-team academic all-MVC honors. Spanheimer was also named the MVC Scholar-Athlete of the Year and set the school and MVC career record with 369 steals and became the first player in league history to earn all-defensive team honors four times. Janis led the team with 19.1 points per game, just the fifth Bluejay player to average better than 19 points in a season.

21-12 Overall • 12-6 MVC (4th)

Creighton opened the year with a 7-4 mark against a tough non-conference schedule – five of CU's non-conference foes advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2008, while two more joined the Jays in the WNIT. The Jays owned wins over eventual conference champions Kansas State and UALR in non-conference play. The Bluejays reclaimed their dominance at home, posting an 11-1 mark at the Omaha Civic Auditorium. CU opened the WNIT with a road trip to Summit League regular-season champion South Dakota State, where the Jays snapped the Jackrabbits' 12-game winning streak and 22-game home winning streak before falling in overtime at eventual champion Marquette in the second round of the WNIT. The Jays also snapped Illinois State's 14-game winning streak on Feb. 2, notching their first win over a top-25 opponent since 1999, and ended Evansville's 10-game winning streak on Feb. 17. UE and Illinois State would share the MVC regular-season title with Drake. CU's win over Indiana State on Jan. 31 was Flanery's 100th career victory. The Jays led the MVC with 40.7 rebounds per game, while establishing school records with 892 defensive rebounds and 1,342 total rebounds on the year. CU also led the MVC with 222 three-pointers, as its 6.7 3FG/game ranked 27th in the NCAA. Ally Thrall was named first-team all-MVC after leading the MVC in minutes played and finishing with a career-high 125 assists. Sara Cain earned second-team all-MVC honors, while Kelsey Woodard was named to the MVC All-Freshman Team and set a Valley record by earning league Newcomer of the Week honors six times during her rookie season.

22-12 Overall • 14-4 MVC (2nd)

Creighton logged its second straight 20-win campaign and fifth 20-win season in an eight-year span. After a 2-6 start against an always challenging non-conference slate, the Bluejays went 20-6 to close out the season, including an appearance in the MVC Tournament title game and their sixth postseason appearance in eight years. The Bluejays posted a 14-4 record in MVC play, good for a second-place finish. CU managed success despite playing without two injured starters, as Sam Schuett missed the entire season and Michelle Kaus missed all but three games. The Jays were the top defensive team in the MVC, allowing 56 points per game to rank 31st in the NCAA. CU's league-leading 13.5 turnovers per game ranked eighth in the nation and its MVC-best 6.6 three-pointers per game ranked 32nd in the NCAA. An 11-game winning streak from Jan. 8 – Feb. 14 was the longest such streak under Jim Flanery, the best by a Bluejay team since the 1991-92 season and the longest MVC streak in CU history. Megan Neuirth was named MVC Defensive Player of the Year, leading the conference in steals and rebounds and topping the team in assists and blocked shots. Her 325 rebounds established a school record and tied for the eighth most in MVC history, while she was one of five players in the NCAA to rank in the top-50 in steals and rebounds per game. Chevelle Herring earned second-team all-MVC accolades and Kelsey Woodard, who led the league with 88 three-pointers, was tabbed honorable-mention all-MVC. The Jays played the first women's game played at CenturyLink Center Omaha (vs. Drake, Feb. 27) and logged 11 straight wins to close out their use of the Omaha Civic Auditorium.

21-11 Overall • 13-5 MVC (2nd)

Creighton enjoyed its first season in the new D.J. Sokol Arena and Ryan Athletic Center by posting a 12-3 home record, including wins in its final seven home games of the year. The Bluejays captured their third consecutive 20-win season, finished second in the MVC regular-season for the second straight season and appeared in the MVC Tournament title game for the second consecutive year and the third time in a four-year span. The Bluejays led the MVC and ranked 21st in the NCAA with 7.3 three-pointers per game, making better than 200 threes in a season for the sixth time in a nine-year span. Creighton repeated as the top defensive team in the MVC, allowing only 58.9 points per game, while ranking 22nd in the nation with only 14.7 turnovers per game. Sam Schuett finished 18th in the NCAA by shooting 42.2 percent from three-point range, while she also made 40 consecutive free-throw attempts to establish a school record during the season. Schuett was joined by Megan Neuirth to become the first Bluejay duo to be named first-team all-MVC in the same season since 2005. Neuirth, who was named MVC All-Defensive Team for the third time, finished her career with school records for career games played (130) and rebounds (929) – ninth in MVC history. Neuirth, Chevelle Herring and Kelsey Woodard became the first trio in school history to each surpass 1,000 career points in the same season. The Jays played their 100th recorded on-campus game against Indiana State on March 6.

18-13 Overall • 12-6 MVC (T-2nd)

Creighton appeared in the WNIT for the fourth consecutive season, joining Kansas and Florida Gulf Coast as the only teams to do so. The Bluejays captured the biggest non-conference win of any MVC team when they beat Marquette, a team which would go on to earn top-25 recognition, on Nov. 28. Creighton finished second in the MVC, the seventh time in 10 seasons it finished second or higher. Seven of Creighton's 11 regular-season non-conference opponents advanced to the post-season, while the Jays' strength of schedule before MVC play began was a league-best 39. CU was 12-3 at home, which included its second game ever played at CenturyLink Center Omaha against Kansas on Dec. 22. The Jays finished the season with eight straight home wins, including a 71-44 thrashing of Illinois State on Senior Day. Creighton led the MVC with 14.4 assists per game in conference play. The Bluejays tied a school-record with 12 blocked shots at Missouri State on Feb. 27. Jim Flanery became just the seventh head coach in league history to reach 100 league wins when the Bluejays beat Wichita State 50-48 (Jan. 29) in the first overtime game played inside D.J. Sokol Arena. Flanery ended the season tied for second in school history with 170 overall victories. Carli Tritz was named MVC Freshman of the Year and honorable mention all-MVC after leading the team in assists, steals and field goal percentage. Kelsey Woodard earned first-team all-MVC honors, as she ended her career ranked third in school history and sixth in Valley history with 261 career three-pointers. Sam Schuett was named second-team all-MVC and Sarah Nelson earned MVC All-Freshman Team notice.
